TIRO ROBBERS SLIP THROUGH POLICE TRAP

Marion Officers Join Statewide Hunt for Pair in Crawford Co. Holdup.

[illegible] second time within a week law enforcement officers of Marion joined in a statewide manhunt after two young gunmen robbed the Farmers and Citizens bank of Tiro in Crawford county of $2,350 early yesterday afternoon. Officers in charge of the hunt today expressed the opinion the men had slipped through the trap.

The road block over northern Ohio following the robbery failed to trap the unmasked bandits however as it had the two ruthless killers who had terrorized Ohio with six killings until caught in a police net near Van Wert last Friday.

Two Rob Bank

The two bank robbers, described as between 24 and 28 years old and dressed in T shirts had held up Mrs. Edith McNutt cashier of the bank at 1:40 p. m. taking a packet of bills of all sizes from an open safe. The Associated Press reported.

Then they escaped in a stolen car, later abandoning it in the public square of Plymouth.

Shortly after, the car was found in Plymouth, and nearly a score of county and state officers blocked off a woods near Plymouth in an effort to capture the pair.

Road blocks were set up in a four county area but were abandoned at 9:30 last night after failing to apprehend the two gunmen.

Daniels Report Erroneous

The road block led to reports in Marion that Robert M. Daniels, confessed slayer of six in the two-week murder orgy which ended with his capture and his companion's death last Friday, had escaped the county jail at Celina. Marion police and the state highway patrol office were flooded with calls from Marion residents who had heard the groundless rumor.

The Star's Bucyrus correspondent reported that the two youths, one blond and one brunet, had entered the bank in Tiro, located about 15 miles northwest of Mansfield, armed with automatic revolvers. They forced Mrs. McNutt, alone in the bank, to hand over a packet of bills from the open vault, but didn't disturb the cash drawer.

Bystander Ordered In

During the robbery, Leo Steele of Tiro, passing by outside, became curious and stopped to look in. The two gunmen ordered him in and stood him against the wall.

Just before the robbery the two men had inquired at a nearby restaurant about the route to Cleveland, and Steele had overheard them. After receiving the directions, they took the opposite direction and aroused Steele's curiosity.

They made their getaway in a car stolen in Shelby less than an hour earlier. The light blue car was owned by Frank Allen of Shelby.

Alarm Broadcast

The car left Tiro speeding north on state route 39. A statewide broadcast was put out over the radio by Shelby Police Chief Leroy Coffer after he was notified of the bank robbery by Tiro Marshall Harold Simpson.

Meanwhile authorities in Mansfield reported that two youths who escaped the Mansfield reformatory Saturday night were still being sought. They have not been definitely linked with the robbery.

The police net thrown over Crawford and surrounding counties was lifted at 9:30 last night.

Marion Officers Out

Marion police, sheriff officers and state highway patrolmen, had been blocking roads surrounding Marion since 3:30 in the afternoon.

The police patrolled routes 23 and 4 north of Marion, state patrol units maintained watch on routes 98, 67 and 224, while the sheriff's men worked route 98 and 30-S.

It was the third time since 1932 that the Tiro bank had been robbed. Mrs. McNutt was the victim of two robberies.

She described the men as neatly dressed, cleanly shaved, wearing T shirts, one white the other a two-toned blue, and between 24 and 28 years of age both were hatless.

The Ohio Casualty Co. of Hamilton paid the bank for its loss today.

Thirty highway patrol cars were reported covering the area today, but no arrests were reported immediately.

PROTEST RED BLOCKADE OF BERLIN. Complaining against the Russian blockade of Berlin, Hertha von Gebhardt, a well-known German writer, tells a crowd of Berlin residents that "We do not want to be quiet. If it's necessary, we will cry in our need. Then the whole world can hear us." More than 20,000 persons attended the mass meeting held in the British sector.

ALLIES SAY NO TO INCREASED RUSS DEMANDS

Western Commandants Refuse To Destroy Berlin City Government.

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, July 28 - Commandants of the western Allies in Berlin today answered with a flat "no" increased Soviet pressure to destroy the blockaded city's elected government.

The three commandants sent a letter to Frau Louise Schroeder mayor of Berlin, countermanding two Russian orders aimed at seizing control of the city government.

U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith, who is in Berlin, may confer with Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor, today, before returning to Moscow with western power proposals for settling the German crisis. Smith said he would remain in Berlin until tomorrow.

The commandants advised Mayor Schroeder that the Soviet order to fire Socialist Johannes Stumm, deputy police president, was invalid. They also told her that the Soviet commandant had no authority to install Paul Letsch as deputy head of the city's food department—one of Berlin's most important offices in the present crisis.

Two Police Heads

Soviet determination to place the police department under Russian control already has created a situation in which the western allies recognize one police chief and the Russians another.

Paul Markgraf, Moscow-trained police chief, who was fired by the city government two days ago, was holding office today only by virtue of the fact that police headquarters is in the Russian sector and he enjoys Soviet support.

Markgraf no longer is recognized as police chief by the city government or the western Allies. The city government ordered Markgraf replaced by Stumm, his deputy. The Russians ignored this order and directed the city to fire Stumm.

Disorders broke out in the Russian sector of blockaded Berlin today when thousands of Germans jammed streets before banks in an effort to exchange their money for new Russian-sponsored currency.

Papers Carry on Fight

Newspapers in western Berlin said the Russians and their Communist-controlled economic commission are trying "to cheat the people out of their money." The deadline for the even exchange is tonight.

The Russians through their newspapers admitted "chaos" existed but blamed the non-Communist city government for not providing enough exchange places. American military government finance officials said this is untrue and "the Russians are trying to make the city government a scapegoat for their own mistake."

Moscow Visit May Settle Issues

PRESIDENT BEFORE CONGRESS. President Truman (lower left) is pictured as he faced congress yesterday to deliver his message in the special session he called immediately following his renomination by the Democrats in their Philadelphia convention. The session and the President's message have both been labeled "purely political" by opposition party leaders. In the front row shown in The Associated Press photo above are cabinet members. In next two rows are senators. Behind them are members of the house. Most of those shown are Republicans.

GOP LEADERS MAP PROGRAM FOR SESSION

Filibuster by Southerners Is Likely To Block Action on Truman Proposals.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 28—Senate Republicans decided today to have committees study President Truman's requests for housing and anti-inflation legislation and to make an effort to outlaw the poll tax.

Chairman Millikin (R-Colo) of the Republican conference announced the decision after an almost three-hour closed session of the Republican senators.

"It was decided to take up the anti-poll tax bill, and that we will press the matter to decision," Millikin told reporters. "We will make every effort to pass the bill."

Southern Democrats have promised to filibuster against it—a move that possibly would block indefinitely other action by the senate.

Millikin said the Republicans also agreed that the appropriate committees will consider the specific points in Mr. Truman's message to congress yesterday.

They agreed to act, he said, on anything "of an emergency character and of national importance."

Set No Adjournment Time

"We were agreed that we should not stay here long enough to interfere with the proper conduct of the campaign," Millikin said, but added that no adjournment time was set.

Republican leaders have laid plans for adjournment as "soon as possible"—probably next week or the week after.

Senator Hunsaker Wherry (R-Neb), GOP majority leader, said the GOP members agreed to a filibuster delay in any attempt to bring up the anti-poll tax bill.

And as the GOP leaders laid plans for a speedy adjournment, they announced complete willingness to let the voters decide in November whether they had done the right thing.

Democrats promptly shouted "sabotage." They accused the majority party of acting out deliberately to wreck the President's program for anti-inflation and housing legislation which he pleaded for yesterday to avert "another great depression."

Privately some Republicans questioned the wisdom of their leaders' strategy, which GOP Senator Robertson of Wyoming said had been arrived at after consultation with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, the party's presidential nominee.

Robertson emerged from a meeting of the senate's Republican policy committee late yesterday and told newsmen Chairman Taft of Ohio had relayed the advice from Dewey to "stay around a week or so and then go home."

Comment by Dewey

This report was relayed in turn to James C. Hagerty, Dewey's press secretary, at Pawling, N. Y. Hagerty at first said Dewey had no comment but a little later announced:

"The governor feels that the congress should stay in Washington and give careful consideration to whatever was proposed in the President's message."

Taft meanwhile was telling reporters that "there has been more or less consultation with Dewey but not in detail."

The Ohio senator, who lost to Dewey in the presidential nomination race, was asked whether there had been any advice about adjourning after a week or so. Taft's reply was tart:

"He was consulted and that's all I have to say. I'm not going to quote him on it."

Center on Civil Rights

The GOP decision to give top priority to civil rights legislation instead of to the anti-inflation measures asked by Mr. Truman was announced in a joint statement by senate and house leaders.

After blasting the special session call as a "political maneuver" in Mr. Truman's election campaign, the Republican chiefs promised "consideration" of the President's proposals and plans to wind up the session "as soon as possible."

That means, members said, within a few weeks.

Here's what they said they will do:

Take up in the senate—perhaps today but probably tomorrow—an anti-poll tax bill already passed by the house and fiercely opposed by southern Democrats.

Mr. Truman, without standing it, asked for such a bill yesterday when he urged action on his February civil rights program calling for anti-poll tax, anti-lynching and anti-[illegible]

DAYTON STRIKE PICKETS HURT

Five, Including CIO Organizer, Injured in Renewal of Clashes.

(Picture on Page 11)

By The Associated Press

DAYTON, O., July 28—Five pickets were injured today, none seriously, in a renewal of clashes between police and the picket line at the strike bound Univis Lens Co. plant.

The disorders climaxing a three-day back to work movement at the plant were described as the most violent yet.

The five were treated at a hospital and then taken to jail to join three others arrested this morning on suspicion. A total of 19 now have been arrested since Monday. No charges were filed against the eight taken in today, but several of the others face charges of assault and battery or disorderly conduct.

Newsmen said they saw police swing clubs to force a path through the picket line for 340 non-striking employes in the back to work movement.

Among the pickets injured was Lou Kaplan, international organizer of the CIO United Electrical Workers. Kaplan's head was covered with blood as he was led helpless to a waiting patrol wagon.

Kaplan and four other pickets were taken to the Miami Valley hospital. Three pickets were taken directly to police station where they were held without charge.

Kaplan's bashed head was X-rayed at the hospital's emergency ward but attendants reported his condition was not serious. Others taken to the hospital were listed by police as Lem Markland, Marvin and Pearl Hup-

500 Dead and 1,400 Injured in German Chemical Plant Disaster.

By The Associated Press

MANNHEIM, GERMANY, July 28—Between 500 and 600 persons were killed and 1,400 injured today in a devastating explosion in the I. G. Farben Chemical plant at Ludwigshafen, a U.S. military government official announced.

Ludwigshafen is in the French occupation zone, across the Rhine from this American-occupied city.

The plant and its numerous buildings employs between 6,000 and 7,000 persons in manufacturing chemicals of various types. The main building was a six-story structure.

The first explosion shot a column of flame two miles high, witnesses reported.

French officials on the scene reported to U.S. military government men here that the explosion occurred in a structure known as the "nitrate building."

"Flames shot two miles into the sky," said an American officer in Mannheim, across the Rhine from Ludwigshafen.

Scores of injured were rushed across the river to Mannheim, from the French to the American zone.

Doctors in Mannheim city hospital said "the hospital is full of victims. They said the other victims pouring in would have to be sent to Heidelberg.

Several telephone lines between Mannheim and Ludwigshafen were destroyed. The stricken city could not be reached from Frankfurt.

The plant was a branch of the sprawling I. G. Farben Industrie Chemical Trust before the combine was split up by a four-power

Marion to Meadville, Pa. Freight Run Puts New Erie Radio in Operation

By GEORGE SCOTT

Few of the bystanders who waved at the mile-long NE 98, the Erie Railroad's "hot-shot" diesel-powered freight, as it roared through the outskirts of Akron at 50-miles-an-hour yesterday realized that a radio conversation was being held in the train's caboose with Cleveland via Youngstown, a distance of 110 miles.

After two years of constant development and experimentation the Erie Railroad radiotelephone made its debut yesterday on a trip from Marion to Meadville, Pa., with representatives from newspapers, magazines, railway organizations, and officials of the Erie.

The four-way radio communication system developed by the Farnsworth Television and Radio Corp., makes it possible to (1) have contact between locomotive cab and caboose, (2) communicate from cab or caboose with the 14 way stations along the 315 mile route, (3) communicate between trains when they are in radio range, and (4) communicate between way stations.

Twenty of us rode in one of the two radio-equipped cabooses painted a brilliant fire-engine red which trailed the first freight carrying fruit and vegetables to New England. Our group was more fortunate than those who made the trip to Kent in the locomotive cab for they didn't get to eat until the train stopped at Kent at 3:30 in the afternoon. The train left here about 11 a. m.

Most of us left the trial run at Kent but a few joined a new group of press representatives who boarded the train for the trip to Meadville, Pa. Because of its perishable freight the train on which we traveled has priority on the Erie.

Other railroad lines have radio communication but the Erie system is believed to be the first practical railway VHF (very high frequency) network on a major railroad.

Basis of Superiority

The Erie-Farnsworth development is said to be superior to inductive type circuits used on most roads. Because inductive type circuits rely on wires strung along the tracks for transmission, communication breaks down if the wires are cut by storms, just when radio is needed the most.

In tests radiotelephone was found by the Erie to increase speed of freight shipment, safety, and efficiency of train crews.

The press party saw an example of one of the practical uses of the development before the train left the Marion yards west. The brakes on the caboose were locked and through conversation on radiotelephone between the locomotive cab and the caboose the problem was remedied. In ordinary practice a cross bar would have been broken, the train separated, and many valuable minutes lost from the freight schedule.

Everybody Talks

Each member of the press got an opportunity to use the radio. As far as the speaker is concerned each unit is just a telephone receiver with a button which is pressed down when sending and released when receiving.

When my turn came we were passing the Ohio state reforma-

FARMER HURT IN BUS, TRACTOR CRASH DIES

Rush Norris of Near Norton Victim of Accident.

Injuries suffered by Rush Norris, 63, farmer of near Norton, Friday when his tractor collided with a Greyhound bus, proved fatal early today at Marion City hospital. The accident happened in Norton on route 23 when the grain filled tractor-drawn farm wagon Mr. Norris was operating swerved into the path of the south bound Detroit-Columbus coach.

Born April 13, 1883, in Meigs county, Mr. Norris lived more than 40 years in Marlboro township, Delaware county.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Amber Norris, and sons, Robert Norris at home and Max Norris of Mississippi, brothers, Redmon Norris of Marysville, Thomas Norris of Parkersburg, W. Va., Samuel Norris and Phillis Norris, both of Pomeroy, and sisters, Mrs. Walter Sayer of Marysville, Mrs. Line Hayman of Westerville, and Mrs. Matt Shields of Pomeroy.

The body was removed to the Ramsey-Mohr funeral home in Delaware.

Says Feller Suffers From Bone Ailment

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 28—A veteran horsetter said today that fireball hurler Bobby Feller is suffering from a bone ailment "and if it isn't fixed soon, he'll be through for good."

A. L. Austin, licensed by the Ohio State Medical board as a limited practitioner in mechano therapy, has treated Feller off and on for years.

"Feller came in Monday," he said, "and I found out immediately he is suffering from shoulder and back trouble."

B-29 CRASHES, ONE SURVIVOR

Believe Rest of Crew of Plane on Globe Circling Flight Lost.

By The Associated Press

ADEN, July 28—An American B-29, one of three making a circuit of the globe, crashed into the sea last night after taking off from this port on the south coast of Arabia. Nineteen men were believed to have been aboard.

One survivor — identified as M/Sgt. Sigver Gustafason of Norwood, Mass.—was reported picked up by a local fisherman, who brought him to shore. He now is in the RAF hospital and reported resting comfortably.

The other two planes returned to Aden.

The crash occurred about a mile off shore. The wreckage is visible from the shore. No bodies have been found.

The three big planes left the air force base at Tucson, Arizona six days ago on what the Air Force called a "routine long distance training" flight.

List of Wrecked B-29 Crew Announced

By The Associated Press

TUCSON, Ariz., July 28 — Davis-Monthan Army air base today announced the names of fellow crewmen of the lone survivor of a B-29 crash off Aden, Arabia, at the time the bomber left here last Thursday.

The Republic Information office said it was possible there had been some interchange of crews among the three B-29's since departure. It emphasized that the list of men aboard the plane with M/Sgt. Sigver Gustafason, Norwood, Mass., who survived, could not be considered a list of victims.

When the B-29's took off on a globe-girdling flight, three men,

GOP BARS ACTION ON FEDERAL JOBS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 28—Republicans pasted a "reserved for GOP" label today on some 900 federal jobs.

"The senate does not intend to consider nominations," the party's congressional leaders said last night in outlining their program for the special session.

That means hundreds of postmasters, federal judges and others whose appointments have not been confirmed face a short-lived job expectancy—if the Republicans succeed in putting Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in the White House next year.

The decision not to take up now any nominations passed over during the regular session is an extension of an informal agreement by the GOP high command last May. At that time they reportedly passed the word on to key committee chairmen not to approve any further major appointments by President Truman.

However, Mr. Truman can keep his selections in office until next year under interim appointments.

BOMB EXPLOSION HITS RUSSELS POINT

By International News Service

BELLEFONTAINE, O., July 28—State and county experts joined officials of nearby Russels Point on Indian Lake today in an investigation of an attempted bombing of a dance hall at the resort.

Jack Stone, proprietor of "Danceland" and the nearby Vienna Gardens, reported that his night-watchman discovered a ticking package about 3:30 a. m. today. Stone said the watchman carried the package outside and tossed it into an empty parking lot.

The "package" exploded a few minutes later breaking windows within a radius of 500 feet and damaging a nearby trailer. Noise of the blast aroused the entire resort.

Indian Lake Foreman Wm. Kannan reported, however, that no one was injured.

SUSPECTED POLIO CASE

A suspected case of polio, a 14-year-old Marion girl, was sent to Children's hospital in Columbus early today, the city health department reported. No confirmation of the polio diagnosis is expected before tomorrow.

Marion County Areas Hit Hard by Wind, and Hail

Downtown Marion escaped the worst of last night's thunder and rainstorm which zoomed and dipped across central and northern Ohio as far east as Akron and Barberton.

All of Marion county and parts of adjoining counties felt lightning, thunder, and rainstorms or all three and several sections of Marion county were heavily hit by hail.

The hail seemed to move through the county in narrow streaks from northwest to southeast. The main movement was north of Prospect and south of Marion doing its worst damage to farms lying in the vicinity of Green Camp and in the area a mile and a half north of Waldo.

Green Camp Area Hit

The Green Camp area suffered severe hail and high winds which blew a large tree down across the Green Camp-Big Island pike. Farmers reported heavy damage from hail in some spots while others in nearby fields went untouched. The hail storm was preceded by a very heavy rain which started about 7:30 p. m. not much lightning was reported.

Most grain crops in the Waldo area were already harvested but farmers along Linn Road between Waldo and the area just west of there reported hail storms which slit corn plants and winds which tore limbs off trees. The area a mile to a mile and a half north of Waldo seemed to be worst hit, observers reported.

On the Paul Almendinger farm on Linn Road a heavy hail storm destroyed the entire oats crop and most of the corn. The oats crop, which was to be combined today, Almendinger said, was a total loss as the hail beat the heads off the stalks. The corn was equally hard hit on the Almendinger farm and on the Herbert Lichtenberger farm which adjoins it. The area surrounding the Will Lust farm, east of Almendingers on the corner of Linn road and route 23 was not so heavily hit, according to reports.

Damage at Ashley

Champion hard luck farmer of the storm was Troy Redd whose farm lies east of Ashley in Delaware county. Redd reported last night's storm blew a heavy farm wagon 50 feet across his barnyard, tore half the roof off a farm shed and a garage and blew

HOPE OF REOPENING TIRE PLANT FADES

By International News Service

NEWARK, July 28—Hope of ever reopening the Pharis Tire & Rubber plant, which had employed 1,200 workers in Newark, faded today.

Some 800 CIO United Rubber Workers unanimously voted Monday night to reject the latest revised proposal offered by the company, which has said it would shut down the plant permanently and move its equipment if it could not reach agreement with the union.

The company claims it has been paying higher wages than standard in the industry and that it cannot compete in the market because of its costs.

The union negotiating committee was tendered a vote of confidence at the meeting after the local president, W. A. Hall, said the union would present a counter-proposal, described as the union's final offer, to company officials today.

The plant has been closed since May 1.

Charges Dismissed In Cutting Scrape

Love overcomes all pitfalls, says Mr. Houston Hawkins Berry of 744½ Fairfield street.

Even a shotgun blast in the arm and nine knife wounds.

Mr. Berry's wife, Irene Delilah, Tuesday was freed for the second time this year of a charge of causing bodily harm to her husband when, because he failed to testify against her, a charge of stabbing with intent to wound was dropped in municipal court for insufficient evidence.

Earlier this year, the May grand jury failed to return an indictment against her after she had been bound over by the municipal court on a charge of shooting her husband with intent to kill.

Mr. Berry, 49, survived both scrapes, though somewhat scarred. So did his love, presumably, for his 39-year-old wife.

But, indicated Acting Municipal Judge Don Williamson, their matrimonial misunderstandings must in the future occur somewher outside Marion.

BISHOP COUNSELS ON HASTY MARRIAGES

By The United Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 28—Hasty or ill-advised marriages may be nipped in the bud before the altar-bound couple ever reaches the church Dr Haren G. Werner newly elected Methodist bishop for Ohio indicated today

Dr Werner who arrived here yesterday to inspect the episcopal residence, said that marriage counselling is coming to the fore

"It won't be long," he said "until it will be required before a minister performs a ceremony"

The new bishop, a pioneer in church sponsored family relations and youth work and a Drew Theological seminary professor before his election as spiritual leader of Ohio Methodists, said he is "vitally interested in youth work and all its phases."

He added, however, that this program is only part of the work ahead.

Dr. Werner said his first big job is to get to know all the church leaders in all the districts He indicated he is eager to get started on the four-year "advance for Christ and His church" program adopted by the general conference of the Methodist church

Social Affairs

AS ONE of their special summer activities members of Iota Alpha chapter Pi Omicron National sorority held a picnic last evening at McKinley park. Twelve-four members were present for the affair and a short business meeting was conducted. Miss Gertrude Haberman and Miss Mary Haberman were named delegates to the national convention to be held at Chicago, Ill. Aug. 18-21 with headquarters at the Congress Hotel. The committee in charge of the picnic last evening was composed of Mrs. Howard Ryan, Miss Margaret Lawler, Miss Vivian Garver and Miss Marguerite Howser. The next meeting will be a picnic Aug. 23 with Mrs. Eugene Reasoner in charge of the arrangements.

A LAWN PARTY today at the home of Mrs. George Patterson of the River road, Clarion, will bring together a group of friends to renew friendships of Harding High school days. The party includes Miss Florence Sweeney of Colorado Springs, Colo., Mrs. Robert Clevenger and daughter Susan of Youngstown, Mrs. Woodrow Frost and son David, Mrs. James Brown Jr. and the hostess and her children, Alice and Sondra Patterson. Incidentally, the group, together with several others in the group and their mothers, met 10 years ago yesterday with Mrs. Woodrow Frost of East Washington street.

For the pleasure of her granddaughter Judith Ann Topper of Bucyrus who was celebrating her third birthday anniversary, Mrs. Claude B. Ash of 520 Toledo avenue entertained her grandchildren at a party Friday afternoon at her home. Games were played and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Those present were Joan Topper, sister of the celebrant, and Shetrone John Topper II of Bucyrus, Benny Lesniewski of Toledo, Kenneth, Jimmie and Richard Kevin Thorpe and Phillip Bosh of Marion and their mothers, Mrs. Francis D. Topper, and Mrs. Shetrone J. Topper of Bucyrus, Mrs. Ben Lesniewski of Toledo, Mrs. George Bosh and Mrs. Leland Thorpe of Marion, and Miss Patty Bosh aunt of the celebrant.

Mrs. Frances Wheeler of Prospect was honored Sunday with a surprise party in celebration of her sixty-fourth birthday anniversary when her children and families gathered at her home. A potluck supper was served in the evening at the Prospect park. Guests present in addition to members of the family were Murray L. Wheeler of Prospect and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Daugherty and daughter of Crooksville, O.

Weddings

St. Joseph's Catholic church in Fort Wayne, Ind., was the scene of the wedding of Miss Marcelline Plescher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Plescher of that city, and Warren Kerrigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerrigan of East Center street. The ceremony took place at 9:30 o'clock the morning of June 14, with Rev. Charles Seburger officiating.

The bride wore a dress of white marquisette and alencon lace and a fingertip veil trimmed in lace. Two white orchids were on her prayerbook.

Her sisters, Misses Edna Eileen, Irene and Cathy Plescher, were her attendants. They wore pink dotted swiss gowns with matching mitts and head pieces. Their pearls were gifts of the bride.

Robert Kerrigan served as best man for his brother and ushers were Robert Barr and Edmund Siennicki of Fort Wayne.

The bride's mother wore a pale blue dress with navy and white accessories.

A breakfast at the Candle-lite followed the service and later there was a reception for 150 guests. When the couple left on a wedding trip the bride wore a brown covert suit with brown and white accessories.

They will make their home in Kent where Mr. Kerrigan is an instructor at Kent State university. Mr. Kerrigan is the manager of the Summit Fast Freight Inc. at Akron.

The wedding of Miss Thelma Zahn daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Worthington of 620 Park street and Donald Lindsey took place Wednesday evening, July 14 in Salem Evangelical and Reformed church. The ceremony was read at 6:45 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Emil Klutey. Mr. Lindsey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindsey of 195 Lake street.

For the ceremony Mrs. Zahn chose a street length dress in a powder blue shade with pink accessories and wore a pink orchid. Mrs. Paul Lindsey sister-in-law of the bridegroom was her only attendant. She wore a street costume in a rose shade with brown accessories. Her flowers were white shattered carnations and blue daisies. Paul Lindsey served as best man for his brother.

Upon their return from a trip through southern Ohio the couple took up their residence at 611 Girard avenue.

This Is Almost 1-Dress Wardrobe

'ROUND THE CLOCK . . . . New version of the basic dress for fall, in sheer charcoal gray wool, designed by Ira at Westheim.

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

A joy in the life of my busy woman is the simple unstrapped, well-cut dress which can go anywhere from market in the morning to the theater at night.

The dress pictured here was put to such a test, worn by a young career woman through one of her busiest weeks. The simple charcoal gray sheer wool lent itself well to changes of accessories, was dressed up or down as the occasion demanded. To the office she wore it with matching alligator shoes and bag and a peaked felt hat. For cocktails and dinner the same dress was worn with a fluffy flower trimmed bonnet, a sable wrap and spike-heeled suede shoes. For a matinee it appeared with the convertible neckline closed high at the throat, and a long string of pearls its only accent. For marketing it was worn with casual walking shoes.

This story has a moral. If your wardrobe is limited choose a simple style in a well-cut dress that will be at ease in any company.

THE "OLD LOOK." At a time when most young girls are cutting their hair short for the "new look," Barbara Levis, 11, of Fort Erie, Ont., shows off the record tresses that make her a foremost exponent of the "old look." The little girl's hair measures 51½ inches long, which is a record in Canada and perhaps in all of North America.

Boy With Matches Cause Of $700 Fire Damage

A five and one-half year old boy playing with matches was the cause of a $700 fire about noon today at the home of Mrs Rose Dryer at the rear of 605 Sugar street. Chief Owen Sifritt reported. Frank Dryer, son of Mrs Dryer had been playing on the back porch of his home where waste paper was accidentally set on fire, burning the porch and then spreading into the interior of the house. The front part of the house is occupied by Richard Abbott. The fire call was answered at 11:52 by the West Center street station and the quad truck from the Central Station.

KING'S DAUGHTERS MEET

Friendship Circle of King's Daughters was entertained recently at the home of Mrs. Marguerite Luke of 409 Nye street. Devotions conducted by Mrs George Darling opened the meeting which was in charge of Mrs. Glenn Riddle leader. Committees were named for the coming year. A social hour followed the meeting with the guessing box going to Mrs Hester Harraman. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Dewey Little.

REPORT BARKLEY AGAINST SESSION

By JOSEPH NOLAN
United Press Correspondent

Sen. Alben W. Barkley, Democratic vice presidential nominee, was pushed unwillingly into the campaign spotlight today by his Republican colleagues on capital hill.

They quoted the Kentuckian to prove their point that President Truman's special session call was a big mistake.

GOP leaders in the house and senate burrowed through their congressional records and came up with a statement purportedly made by Sen. Barkley a month ago, before he was selected as Mr Truman's running mate.

"I think," they quoted Sen. Barkley, "if we sit here until after the (Republican) convention, or if we sit here between the conventions, or after the two conventions, the entire time of the congress will be taken up with political bickering and political legislation and political oratory, and I do not want that to be brought about."

Sen. Barkley, who has taken no part in the campaign since his nomination two weeks ago, did not comment immediately on the GOP leaders' statement. He said yesterday, however, that he thought the President's legislative program was "reasonable" and could be carried out "if congress would take it seriously and go to work on it."

The Republican leadership cited Sen. Barkley's in support of its claim that "serious legislative problems cannot be satisfactorily handled in the midst of a political campaign."

In their statement of policy, the leaders also described the President's special session call as "a political maneuver in the campaign for his own reelection."

Mr. Truman's Message

THERE are two distinct types of recommendations in Mr Truman's message to congress

One type of recommendation is for emergency action on rising prices and housing

The other type is for action on matters like universal training a loan for construction of a UN headquarters a long-range farm program, pay revision for federal employes civil rights legislation etc All these things were put over from the regular session of the 80th congress to the 81st congress because there was no particular hurry about them Mr Truman included them in his list of recommendations hoping to get whatever political advantage might be picked up by mentioning them at this time He does not expect action

He does appear to expect action on rising prices and housing and one of the most momentous questions before the Republican leadership of congress is whether or not to give him what he expects Circumstances have taken an ironic twist since 1946 when Mr Truman was on the spot because prices were rising If the Republicans and a great many Democrats hadn't taken him off the spot by deciding to discontinue certain wartime controls that no longer were workable today it would be Mr Truman instead of the Republicans being blamed for high prices Perhaps it would be simple justice now for the Republicans to turn the tables again before November by giving Mr Truman what he is asking for i e executive responsibility for prices In the same line of reasoning it might be simple justice to give him the housing legislation he wants and let him be answerable for the housing shortage too

Dialectics in Reverse

AMERICAN Communists like their fellow conspirators abroad are experts in the art of hair-splitting known as dialectics They have managed to hair-split their way to a status of semi-respectability in the political system of the United States, running their own candidates in the free elections they ultimately hoped to destroy

In the forthcoming trial of the 12 American Communists charged with conspiracy to overthrow this government, party dialectics are going to be used in reverse—this time by the U S department of justice The department says it will use statements out of the mouths of the accused to show their intention

It also will bring into evidence their overt acts to show what they have been doing. The Communist party of the United States according to Benjamin Gitlow old-time Commie who was expelled from the party in 1929 with Jay Lovestone, received financial grants from Moscow when it was still known as the Workers' party It was openly the American section of the Communist International Later, it tried to conceal this connection

Its present head William Foster one of the 12 defendants in the action brought by the department of justice was put in office by foreign directive In 1930 Foster was ousted for Earl Browder who in turn was ousted for Foster again—by foreign directive Gitlow who eventually renounced communism, wrote in his book "I Confess" that the Communist party of the United States has been under direct control from Moscow since 1929 His judgment is supported by party twistings and turnings to follow the Moscow-directed party line—twistings and turnings which are a matter of record that cannot be concealed by hair-splitting

Waste of Paper

AN INTERIM edition of the Congressional Record has come to hand It has more than 200 pages about as many as government printing office binders facilities will permit

The edition is principally given over to speeches by congressmen and comment on national affairs One of the largest contributions is from Representative Morrison a doughty emissary from the Louisiana canebrake In a section titled "Jimmy Morrison Gives His Views" he takes up 10½ pages with his office correspondence including invitations to cornerstone-layings and thanks from constituents for services rendered This is printed at government expense It may help Jimmy Morrison to be reelected unless his constituents aren't impressed by the lavish use of good white paper for such a trivial purpose

One for The English

THE defeat of Gus Lesnevich by Freddie Mills is significant primarily because it means that for one of the few times within the memory of living men an Englishman rules as boxing champion in one of the heavier weight classifications. Mills whom Lesnevich previously had easily defeated won the light heavyweight championship Monday

The English, who take their boxing seriously have had many occasions to be disappointed by their boxers in world competition Tommy Farr, who gave Joe Louis quite a scuffle was a Welshman The less said of Phil Scott and Bombardier Wells the better

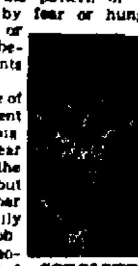

America won't begrudge the English their triumph They have been taking such a mauling in virtually every phase of international sport that Mills' victory should bolster their morale

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

Wallace Convention Must Be Taken Seriously

THE Wallace convention must be taken seriously even if his adherents look like the side show of a circus Of such stuff are mass movements woven The hysteria over nothing in Philadelphia the holy roller singing of doggerel the repetition of the words "China and Greece" the tower-of-babel-like rhythm of sounds with only emotional content—this is the pattern of the mob driven by fear or hunger or passion, or just driven because it wants to be driven

SOKOLSKY

The essence of this movement is Soviet Russia This was clear not only in the set speeches but in the ugly roar of this gaily traitorous mob These same people persecuted the Bund the Christian Front the Ku Klux Klan Had anyone done for Hitler what they are doing for Stalin they would have organized lynching parties Yet there is no difference between them either in spirit or in purpose The mob always reacts with the same hysteria And it never knows its direction, except that it hates.

The new party is in the service of Soviet Russia It attacks indiscriminately every American who is not in the service of Soviet Russia It attacks Truman Dewey Dulles Vandenberg Marshall, Forrestal General Draper General Clay—the list is long but it is indiscriminate The speeches closely followed the line on foreign and domestic policies of the Daily Worker and the New Times a weekly publication issued in Moscow and circulating in four languages including English, in the United States

They Lack Stamina

These Wallaceites are not Communists because to be an avowed Communist requires conviction and courage and a religious faith which, while from my standpoint is wholly wrong nonetheless must be recognized for what it is

The Wallaceites are not of such stock they are rather like the swooning adulators of Rudolph Valentino or Frank Sinatra they are rather Masochists who revel in their umbrages they are rather like those mystics who follow Father Divine or those pursuers of the impossible who produced the ham-and-eggs and the Townsend movements Unhappy clutching to their disabilities this is their outlet This new party for a moment frees their souls from an imprisonment of their own making They shriek they shout their eyes shine fanatically They are masters of power Then they sink back to nursing their griefs

Lenin never organized such into a force but Hitler did For them Lenin had only contempt and over them he established what he called a dictatorship of the proletariat held in a trusteeship by an oligarchy of his own devising Dr Sun Yat-Sen recognized their menace and he organized China into a state of "tutelage" as he called it, with the kuomintang as trustee and tutor Kemal Pasha ignored them and frightened them But Mussolini and Hitler welded them into a force which both dominated each in his own country by hypnotic oratory and mannerisms And both brought their countries to destruction

Reason for Menace

In the United States such a movement is particularly menacing because of the heterogeneous character of the American population The Wallaceites are making a special appeal to the Negroes of whom there are 13-000,000 in this country and who are growing increasingly discontended over the discriminations practiced against them both in the north and the south When the temporary chairman of Wallace's convention challenged President Truman to issue an executive order abolishing Jim Crow in the armed forces, he put his finger on Truman's hypocrisy For whereas Truman demands that congress abolish discrimination in this country by law, he had not dared to abolish discrimination where the law already permits him to do it at his own discretion and he had not dared to do it until politics intervened because he knew that at a time of national crisis such an act would imperil the national defense

When Wallace and his cohorts issue such a challenge in our present peril they strike not at Truman but at the United States Just as Truman's convocation of congress for this purpose in special session strikes not at Dewey but at the United States

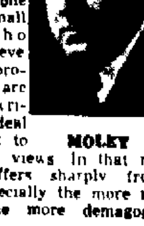

This then is what we face as a people Wallace having stimulated Negro rebelliousness has channeled American history into a treacherous and perilous course

Wallace's Platform Maker

By Raymond Moley

WHEN Henry Wallace was secretary of agriculture people who worked closely with him very frequently spoke of him as a mystic These people included Rex Tugwell who was Wallace's under-secretary and headed his platform committee at the Philadelphia convention Tugwell's attachment to Wallace while of long standing is not personal in the sense of Hopkins attachment to Roosevelt It is based upon a profound intellectual conviction that the country needs the warnings and the teaching which Wallace offers

MOLEY

Tugwell is one of a very small number who really believe what they profess and are willing to sacrifice a great deal for the right to express their views In that respect he differs sharply from Wallace—especially the more recent and the more demagogic Wallace

I would like to offer this opinion of Tugwell's stark sincerity amidst the brickbats that are going his way since he decided to join the Wallace party I have some right to an opinion because I have known him a long time and introduced him to Roosevelt in 1932 Roosevelt then established him as an inner adviser It might be added that almost alone among those who were thrust into public life Tugwell has remained friendly to this writer despite cosmic differences on political and economic policy

Liked by Roosevelt

Roosevelt kept Tugwell in public service for many years The reason for this explains a good deal about Tugwell and about Roosevelt, too No one had greater power to stir Roosevelt's interest The Tugwell views were not suitable for a complete pattern of statesmanship They were too radical even for Roosevelt but they were the condiments in the ample Roosevelt diet

Again and again Tugwell would express regret that Roosevelt was moving too slowly that he was frittering away his great power on half-way reform that the summer would end and that nobody would be saved This was due to Tugwell's temperament He has always suffered deeply over the faults and injustices in the nation and the world and has wanted to help He has always been pessimistic about things as they are He has little faith in the present system of business enterprise and he does not believe in the effectiveness of traditional party methods

Found Him "Stimulating"

Of course this attitude during the Roosevelt administration earned for Tugwell bitter distrust of both businessmen and politicians For this reason, whenever a campaign came along Roosevelt would suppress Tugwell and consort with more orthodox advisers But just as a controlled tippler will have his grog after working hours, Roosevelt would summon Tugwell after the campaign for more intellectual stimulation

Tugwell is no Communist He admires the Russian experiment in domestic affairs but he would never last in a real Communist movement He would have been purged in Russia long ago No doubt he feels uneasy about the presence of Communists in the Wallace party But since he is politically naive he thinks they have something to offer and that their program can be sampled not followed In this respect Tugwell as well as Wallace makes a profound mistake There can be no Communist half loaves Ultimately Communists will control or destroy That alternative the Wallace party will have to face if it lives beyond the present campaign

Bottle Mail Takes Its Time

Columbus Message Delivered 359 Years Later

WITH the war over the British Admiralty's communications section has resumed its drift-bottle mail service—the delivery of ocean borne containers carrying messages from castaways and lovelorn seafarers

The traffic in such messages is larger than a landlubber realizes At present many letters are being fished from the sea which were written during the last war by men aboard doomed ships Still being found however are missives from World War I the American Civil War the German Danish War of 1865 the Napoleonic wars and even the Seven Years War

The first official bottle post was organized in 1585 after a flask picked up in the Dover Strait was found to contain a message from Mary Queen of Scots It was addressed to the Duke of Lorraine begging him to organize a European coalition against England As a result of this letter Queen Elizabeth made it a capital offense for any unauthorized person to open a drifting bottle She appointed an official bottle uncorker to handle such mail

In recent years the admiralty has been assisted by the International Bottle Club and the Nautical Magazine of London which publishes lists of bottle mail addresses.

The Bottle Club having dropped messages in numerous languages in most of the world's major seas and rivers, has compiled maps indicating known marine currents and wind drifts and their approximate speeds

The club has found for instance that the Gulf Stream—one of the bottle post's most often-used routes—is among the slowest messengers averaging just over four miles a day The fastest are the Brazil current which flows from the equator toward the Plate river at a rate of 30 miles in 24 hours for a medium-sized bottle an dthe South Pacific Wind Drift known as the Roaring Forties which pushes a bottle through the water at an average speed of 13 miles a day The Kuroshivo and the Westwind Drift of the North Pacific are speedy drift-bottle carriers but the Benguela the Labrador the Nino and the Humboldt currents are laggards

Even these figures are relative however since a bottle may drift slowly in the center of a current or move faster as it nears the edges

Some important messages entrusted to Father Neptune have taken even longer to reach their destinations Most famous is the one Christopher Columbus sent in 1493 addressed from the Indies to Queen Isabella I of Castile in a cedarwood coffer It was delivered 359 years later to the descendant of Isabella the Catholic Queen Isabella II of Spain by Capt D Auberville of the Yankee bark Chieftain of Boston who had found the casket and its message on parchment lying on the African shore at the foot of Mount Abylus in 1852

Comment on Coming Olympics

He Profits from Giving

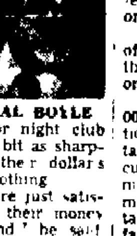

By Hal Boyle

PHILADELPHIA

THE 39-year old grandson of an Italian immigrant has become a Henry Ford of the night club business in America

And Frank Palumbo built his after-dark empire here in the City of Brotherly Love, which is popularly supposed to stay up after sunset only on the day when an evening baseball game is being played

But Palumbo created a multi-million dollar yearly business on the basis that the masses have more money to spend at night clubs than the classes

HAL BOYLE

"The whole secret of this business is giving the people the kind of entertainment they want" said Palumbo who owns six night clubs and restaurant in Philadelphia

Right now he thinks the people are shopping for night club entertainment every bit as sharply as they do for their dollar's value in food or clothing

They no longer are just satisfied to go and pay their money and listen to a band" he said "They want more than a voice or a tune These guys who just play their saxophones and clarinets and turn their back to the audience are finished

Palumbo thinks the night club business, now off 100 per cent in many cities, never will enjoy again such a lucrative period as the war years

"Night clubs have to get back to real merchandising The fast dollar is gone"

Liberal Giver

Palumbo, a stocky dark-haired cheerful bachelor, has made himself a civic institution here by his pleasure in giving Friends estimate he gives away $100,000 a year

His pattern of philanthropy is based probably more on what gives him pleasure than on how his gifts will bring him more business

He likes sports — he owns a chunk of Ike Williams the lightweight boxing champion — and gives a number of cups and trophies each year to winners of sporting events He also takes some 45 000 children a year to the zoo circus or a major league ball game

By giving the zoo a leopard, four alligators some South American birds and two rhinos he also endeared himself to the animal-loving hearts of the Main Line aristocracy here And it is a crusty society you just don't crash with a new bank roll

Also Gives Blood

Palumbo has given blood transfusions as well as dollars He is easier to hit than a radio giveaway program As the whim seizes him he passes out watches pen and pencil sets cases of liquor perfume gold rings bracelets, and television sets for orphanages

"I get my chief pleasure out of life in seeing people enjoy themselves," he says His favorite beverage is a soft drink

He pays out more than $1 000-000 a year to bring in the nation's top-priced bands and entertainers He says his average customer now pays only $1 a night He never has had a minimum or cover charge The restaurant founded by his grandfather in 1884 has catered to more than 100 000 wedding parties

He is a kind of poor man's Sherman Billingsley His formula You can make more money from a lot of small income people out for a good time than you can from a small number of rich people with money to burn—but you have to plow a lot of it back Because the people he appeals to like a cheerful giver

So far the formula has worked There are no rings under Palumbo's eyes from worry

Daily Bible Thought

We shoould not think that religion can be supported by fairs and cheap devices These evasions of the spirit of sacrifice and sharing cheapen religion They should supplement not substitute for sacrificial giving "Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple"—Mk 11 15

Words of the Wise

Is not that the truest gratitude which strives to widen the horizon of human happiness and to make our fellows sharers in that which has gladdened us"—H C Potter

When dealers put the [illegible]
A trade-in marked the deal—
And nothing with the shine off had
Much second hand appeal
IV
I remember I remember
When dealers would declare
"A used car's pretty hard to sell
And I have lots to spare
He used to say I'll have it on
My hands for half a year
Before some sap who wants a car
Like that one will appear"
V
I remember I remember
When men were driven far
By price tags like "One Hundred
On a slightly faded car
When for one-hundred-fifty you
Could always pick and choose
Among a wide variety
In shiny green and blues

I remember I remember
When buyers all would scorn
A bus that lacked a window pane
Or had one fender torn
When dealers scorned a battered wreck
And never dreamt that they Could get two thousand smackers for
The rattletrap some day

But now a car with all four wheels
Can run the bidding high
And if it has a steering wheel
The price will hit the sky
I ran across one yesterday—

I grabbed it for three thousand for
It was so very cheap!

On Greener Grass

By TRUMAN TWILL

Seems as if everybody has gone on vacation—looking for greener grass on the other side of somebody's fence It's a good time to think about High Pants which is what we used to call the stone farmer up in Ontario

It was a behind-the-back name that referred to the curious fact his pants never reached his ankles probably because he wore off the bottoms as he climbed over stone piles on his farm balanced beside one of the prettiest lakes in the province

Or perhaps he kept them hitched high to hold himself up as he trudged endlessly through his never-ending chores supporting his brood of wide-eyed children his overworked wife his aging father and mother

His real name was Walter He had lived on that farm he told us one evening all of his then 40-odd years except for one month when he went away to work in a boat factory He didn't like the boat factory he missed the lake he explained so he came home and hadn't been there ever since

He never had seen a movie an elevator or a city street He had never been on a vacation eaten a meal in a restaurant or witnessed a traffic accident The only newspapers he'd ever seen were many days old when he got them and of course he didn't own a radio and never had eaten any packaged breakfast food guaranteed to give him pep and zing But he had no complaint to make on this or any other score

The most cash money he'd ever handled in a year he estimated was $250 from the sale of a couple of scrub heifers and day work in a lumber camp during the winter Yet by the standards of his region he was well off He would inherit the farm when his father died And because the farm was on the lake and the provincial government had graded a road into the region tourists were plentiful High Pants some day would build a cabin or two and become a summer landlord He already was earning up by selling vegetables and an occasional chicken to campers for ridiculously low prices

All this was years ago But High Pants was then and still is now a symbol—the kind everybody adopts sooner or later among acquaintances in the vacation spots where the grass is greener only a few months a year and only for fishermen They symbolize a simple life beyond reach of the machine age

High Pants and his kind are what feverish vacation friends think about between vacations The thought of them trudging about their farms scratching to make ends meet yet seemingly content to stay where they are makes it easier to stay where we are when there's nothing that can be done about it anyway Of course by this time High Pants may have made enough money off tourists to be thinking about taking a vacation too but what we don't know won't disillusion us

School Urged To Join Fight Against Cancer

By The United Press

IOWA CITY, Ia.—The head surgeon at the University of Iowa hospitals believes the nation's schools and colleges are not doing enough in the fight against cancer.

Dr. N. A. Womack contends that cancer thrives as the second greatest killer because of the public's fear and ignorance.

"Fear coupled with lack of education on the subject of cancer are the two greatest handicaps in the medical profession's battle against it," he said.

"If an individual knows the basic elements of human physiology he is a more health-minded citizen."

BOY KILLED BY AUTO

By The Associated Press

BELLEFONTAINE, O., July 28—Eight-year-old Alvin Phillips of nearby Huntsville was struck and killed on U. S. route 33 last night, police reported. Police said he had been walking behind a farm wagon and had darted across the highway in the path of a car driven by John Weber, 18, of West Liberty.

[illegible] and Paul Dunnam. They received head injuries.

Conflicting Reports

Police declared today's clash had broken the back bone of the picket line resistance to the back to work movement.

Union leaders, however, declared the pickets had not given up.

Since Monday 10 pickets, all members of the UEW (CIO) and its local 768, have been arrested as police details of unprecedented force have hustled [illegible] into the plant. Some 150 policemen were on the scene today.

CIO leaders from other locals joined leaders of local 768 in denouncing the police action.

Bill Smith, secretary-treasurer of the Montgomery County Industrial Union Council (CIO), said a meeting of presidents of all CIO locals will be called to discuss the situation. News men said they heard Jim Kvalt, president of local 768 at General Motors Delco plant, remark, "We are really going to shut it down now". He did not amplify the statement.

Crowd Lines Street

Six hundred persons lined the south side of Leo street, shutting off traffic as police clashed with the pickets around 7:30 a. m.

After the melee subsided, Police Capt. M. C. Kirkpatrick, blood on his shirt and one sleeve rolled up, reported the situation under control.

Police Chief R. F. Wurstner who yesterday had nearly 100 policemen on duty at the plant said his men had been placed on two 12-hour shifts.

His action followed renewed violence along a CIO United Electrical Workers picket line yesterday when Univis employes, answering a back-to-work call by the company, tried to enter the plant.

Yesterday policemen pierced the 200-person picket line with a flying wedge. They formed a corridor through which non strikers started to work. One employe was struck down by a picket who managed to dodge past the police detail.

Report Stench Bombs Used

Police said stench bombs were used during yesterday's disorders. In previous disturbances police said a chemical smelling like skunk oil had been sprayed about the picket line.

The Univis plant had been strikebound since May 3. Last Friday in a national labor relations board election local 768 of the CIO United Electrical Workers union was defeated, 382 to 372, as a bargaining agent for Univis employes.

R. R. Stanley, president of the company, has announced that any of the firm's employes not back at work by Thursday would be discharged.

Two Workmen Injured In Shovel Co. Mishaps

Two industrial accidents at the Marion Power Shovel Co. between 10 a. m. and noon sent two employes to City hospital with foot and leg injuries. Charles Gerber Jr. of 264 Forest street and George R. Clark of Richwood were taken on separate trips by the L. A. Axe and Son ambulance to the hospital where X rays were taken. The former suffered crush and fracture of his right foot and the latter compound fracture of his left leg. Details of the accidents were not learned. Both men are employed in the factory.

Buenos Aires Agent For Huber Co. and Wife Here

On their first visit to the United States, Mr and Mrs. Helmut Kleinberger of Buenos Aires are in Marion this week to tour the Huber Manufacturing Company.

Mr Kleinberger is import manager of Dobranich & Cia, S R L, Buenos Aires distributors of the Huber line of road maintenance and construction machinery. He and Robert Dobran h who was in Marion last winter with his bride, organized the company in a joint partnership three years ago.

Gadgets, especially those which make housekeeping easier and life in general more enjoyable, and cotton dresses are particularly attractive to Mrs Kleinberger. When she and her husband leave the country Sept 10 the trip will have to be made by passenger liner because of the gadgets and dresses and other mementos the couple has collected.

Cotton Goods Scarce

Since the Argentina cotton industry cannot come close to supplying the demand, cotton dresses which are in profusion as standard summer wear in the United States, are hard to get in Buenos Aires. The gadgets Mr and Mrs Kleinberger are buying will go into the new home they are building.

Mr and Mrs Kleinberger flew from Buenos Aires to Puerto Rico and after several days there flew to Miami. After two days of rest and relaxation at Miami Beach, they flew to Chicago to attend the national road show. Mr. Kleinberger spent last week contacting manufacturers represented at the huge exposition and when Mrs. Kleinberger was not with him at the show she was shopping the Chicago stores. They spent two days in Milwaukee and then came in to Marion by train yesterday from Chicago. They are staying at Hotel Harding and will be in Marion several days.

Both Mr and Mrs. Kleinberger are fond of music and she is expert at needlecrafts. Mr Kleinberger, who likes all sports, including swimming, is a skiing enthusiast, although he has to go 1,500 miles to a ski run. Mrs. Kleinberger also is very interested in "our job, which she calls the Dobranich company, since she assisted her husband and Mr Dobranich in establishing the company. She is no longer associated with the firm.

Mr Kleinberger, a native of Germany, left the country in 1934 when he saw the Hitler trend. "The minute I stepped on the boat I did not like any more Europe," he said this morning in discussing his preference for American-made automobiles over European makes which are widely sold in Argentina. Mrs Kleinberger, a native of Odessa, has lived in South America for the last 24 years.

While Mr Kleinberger was at the Huber plant this morning with Don A Howard, president and general manager and Willis R. Nye, director of export, Mrs Kleinberger was shopping Marion stores on the look-out for gadgets and cotton dresses. Before they leave Marion they will make a tour of the Huber plant site and watch actual construction of Huber rollers and maintainers.

having the American, British and French envoys in Moscow call on foreign minister Molotov—probably next weekend—for a direct discussion of the Berlin crisis.

What they find out from Molotov will go a long way toward determining whether there is any prospect for an early meeting of the big-four foreign ministers council.

Such a session would bring Molotov face to face with Secretary of State Marshall, Foreign Minister Bevin and French Foreign Minister Schuman for the first time since the stalemated London meeting of last December.

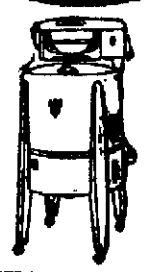

SON OF FORMER MARION RESIDENTS HURT IN LORAIN

Jeffrey Rizor, 3, son of Mr and Mrs Robert Rizor of Lorain, former Marion and Richwood residents, suffered a broken right arm, possible skull fracture, and multiple cuts and bruises when he was struck by a car while playing in the driveway of his home at 10:30 a m yesterday. He is in St Joseph's hospital, Lorain, where his condition today was reported as fair.

Mr and Mrs Leo Rizor of 662 Cherry street are grandparents of the child. Robert Milligan of Richwood, is a cousin.

Ohio To Launch Uniform Traffic Sign Campaign

By The United Press

C[illegible]MBUS, July 28 — The state department of highways today [illegible] a campaign for uni[illegible] [illegible] Ohio [illegible].

[illegible] part of a [illegible] traffic safety program [illegible] Ohio would [illegible] make signs as effective as possible in safeguarding and speeding up movement of traffic.

To attain this highway officials said it is necessary to make each sign the same which marked a similar road condition or hazard.

Uniform standards provide four basic sign shapes: an octagon for a stop sign; diamond shape for warnings such as curves, turns, etc.; a round sign for railroad crossings, and a rectangular marker for speed limits, turning, parking, etc.

Egg shells are chiefly formed of carbonate of lime.

ERIE RADIO

[illegible] at Mansfield and [illegible] for the lack of something better to say I announced to the employes in a radius of 50 miles "This is caboose 246. The fellow next to me is waving to all his kin in the building on our right."

The man happened to be one of the engineers who designed the system. He quickly countered with "It's better than having all your relatives at home."

Radio-telephone units have been installed on Erie passenger trains but, because the units are dependent on the way stations placed about every 50 miles on the way, they can only operate on the three Erie divisions between Marion and Meadville, Pa.

Two Wave Bands

Two wave bands are available in case one becomes crowded. On the trip the engineer on our train switched to the second band to tell another freight that just passed us that he had a "hot-box." This is a condition where lubrication has been lost for the wheels of a car and friction causes the metal to get red hot. A hot-box can set fire to a car or derail a train.

Walkie-talkies on the same frequency as the radio-telephone have been issued to Erie personnel outside of the trains so they may communicate with either the engineer or cab [illegible].

The Erie plans to extend the system east of Meadville in the near future.

Meet Many Problems

During the development engineers ran into many problems not anticipated. The speakers installed were the same as used on U. S. battleships during the war. But they had to be altered to take the terrific pounding of a freight train on the move.

The headquarters for repairing of radio telephone equipment has been set up at Marion.

The call to Cleveland, made as the train went through Akron, was made first through a dispatcher at a way station, who connected the call to regular telephone lines.

Two Autos Damaged In Accidents Here

Two traffic accidents involving damage to vehicles involved but no injuries were reported today by city police.

A New York Central engine struck a stalled car on the West Center street crossing at 7:42 a. m. today, damaging the left front and side of the car which was driven by Claire Eugene Fields, 21, of near LaRue. The car had stalled as Fields was driving east on West Center street. He escaped injury.

Cars driven by Melvin L. Radel, 29, of near Caledonia, and George E. Dunaway, 40, of Zanesfield, O., collided in an alley intersection to the rear of 227 South Prospect street at 3:15 p. m. yesterday, damaging both automobiles.

Pastor Shoots, Kills Man Stealing in Church

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, July 28 — While 25 parishioners were meeting in an adjoining auditorium, the pastor of a North Philadelphia church last night shot and killed a man he had surprised stealing $50 from a desk in his study, police reported.

Police identified the victim as Robert Winters, 35, and said he was killed instantly by five bullets as he tried to flee from the New Light Tabernacle Baptist church.

Rev. Theodore Bullock, 39, pastor of the church, told police he fired the shots from a 32 caliber pistol.

The shooting, according to police, climaxed a violent scuffle during which the intruder dropped an envelope containing the money.

The yolks of eggs contain lecithin, an important substance for nourishing nerves and aiding growth.

TO TAX BINGO GAMES

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O., July 28 — City council [illegible] adopted a three per cent amusement tax on bingo games, a step which may net the city $25,000 to $30,000 additional revenue each year. Adoption of the tax came after a heated debate on the operations of the bingo games. The new tax will be [illegible] income from bingo games, which may be operated here only for charitable purposes.

Stamp Marion Boy Paid 29 Cents For in 1883 Is Now Worth $7,500

By HARRY A ELLIOTT

Listen son—are you a stamp collector?

If so, it might be wise for you to hold on to that grand ones and wait for results

There's no guarantee but who knows you may have an experience like that of another Marion boy who paid 29 cents for a one cent postage stamp away back in 1883

Today he still has the stamp, and its value as a collector's item is quoted at $7,500 which establishes it as a pretty fair investment—a gain of $7,499.71 in 55 years

As you may have guessed the owner of this remarkable stamp is Dr Frederick A Stengel Marion optometrist who is recognized as one of the country's outstanding hobby stamp collectors The story of his 29 cent purchase and its tremendous increase in value was unearthed inside layers of dust Tuesday in speaking to the Marion Rotary club on his favorite subject, "Hobbies"

He related it as a part of his informal talk not for the purpose of emphasizing or advocating the commercial or profit value of a hobby but merely to show that it can be made to yield monetary returns if the hobbyist has the proper point of view

As for Dr Stengel he's not a believer in money making purposes a fact which is generally known by the thousands engaged in this fascinating avocation throughout the country He buys but never sells and as a consequence possesses a collection that is not surpassed and possibly not equalled by any other in the country from the standpoint of size and variety

DR F A STENGEL

Has 142 Hobbies

Earl N Hale another notable Marion hobbyist who introduced Dr Stengel to his Rotary audience at Hotel Harding Tuesday said that by actual count Dr Stengel has 142 hobbies represented by that number of varied and interesting collections

Getting back to the story of the 29-cent stamp purchase

The stamp was one of the Benjamin Franklin issue of 1851 1857 and young Stengel bought it from Henry Rizor a Marion business man who sold stamps to Marionites of the early 80's either to start them as collectors or to help them build up their collections

Price Seemed High Then

Twenty nine cents for a one-cent stamp looked like a big price in those days and might seem so to some people now even in these days of semi-inflation—or possibly it's not semi At any rate Dr Stengel recalls that his father was far from enthusiastic about the investment and evidently thought his young son might have put the 29 cents to more practical use

But young Stengel's enthusiasm for stamps continued unabated and he acquired others through the years until now his collection rates among the best And needless to say his enthusiasm is at a higher pitch than ever

Looks Up Quotation

Several months ago Dr Stengel told his Rotary audience he went to the bank to look over some of his most valuable collector's items in his safety deposit box and coming across the Franklin stamp he consulted Scott's Catalogue to ascertain the current quotation Scott's Catalogue is the country's chief authoritative market record for collector's items of all kinds It listed the stamp as follows

Franklin 1c imperf No 30-A5 $7,500

The abbreviation "imperf" means uncancelled and Dr Stengel's stamp is in that classification A cancelled stamp one bearing a postmark of the same issue, is quoted at $1,000

Although not in the market for sale of the stamp Dr Stengel wrote to the headquarters where such purchases are made to determine how much would be offered for an immediate sale Word came back that if he wished to sell a representative of the company would be sent here with a $6,000 check ready for delivery in closing the transaction

But instead of Dr Stengel has been waiting for sale so the company says it has its check and the stamp remains in his safety deposit box

Advocates Hobbies for All

In his talk to the Rotarians and their guests at the club's weekly luncheon meeting Dr Stengel voiced the belief that every person should have a hobby but that it should be one wisely chosen and carefully arranged

He quoted what he regards as an excellent definition of a hobby "Something that you like to do that you don't have to do"

His advice is to collect things of value not just junk And he said the hobbyist should make a study of the items he or she collects and be well-informed on the subject in order to get the fullest possible benefit He emphasized that a hobby can be educational as well as stimulating in a recreational sense and as his story of the Franklin stamp illustrated can be financially profitable if that result is desired He pointed out that many hobbyists at their death leave collections which have substantial and often large monetary values for their heirs

Hobby Samples Shown

In connection with his talk Dr Stengel exhibited displays from some of his collections. Included were

Various varieties of wood of which he said there are approximately 800 badges from G A R encampments national and state fans including three once owned by the wives of presidents Mrs Grover Cleveland Mrs William Henry Harrison and Mrs Warren G Harding buttons including one or more from every material from which buttons are made beaded bags including three once owned by Gene Stratton Porter the author the mother of President William McKinley and Mrs Warren G Harding valentines of varied types and designs tobacco pipes of varied sizes and design postage stamps razors and shears also blades once used by physicians for bleeding patients badges of various types including honorawards of solid gold eye glasses, or spectacles ancient and modern photographs starting with silhouettes and daguerreotypes on through tintypes to modern pictorial products autographs which Dr Stengel said often revealed human characteristics dolls necklaces cut glass including one resplendent dish which won first prize at the Chicago world's fair in 1893 and which represented 31 days handwork by an expert glass cutter

Guests of Club

Guests of the Rotary club in addition to Dr Stengel were J B Nordholt Jr and Ben Nordholt of Tiffin Jack Hill of Detroit Mich E W Stubbs of Maywood Ill and Tom Sheridan of Dayton, all Rotarians Cecil Parsons of Mansfield Dan DeHaven of Columbus Rex Larson of Mansfield Tom H Thompson and Larry S Davidow of Detroit Mich, William Stubbs of Maywood Ill Louis Bremkamp and Capt Wilbur Evans of Marion

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

"No, Philip won't mind an audience," Olga said with a little smile, and there was tenderness and infinite understanding of her temperamental husband in both words and smile. I mentally paraphrased to the masculine a favorite question of mine from Jerome.

"Heaven help you, sir," I thought "if your wife does not love you because of your foibles instead of in spite of them."

"Then," I said with determination, "I'm not going to leave here until Philip comes back. If Dicky comes home in the meantime do you mind if I ask him to come down here? He'll have to escort me back upstairs, anyway."

"Of course I don't mind," she said. "Indeed, I am flattered to have you so interested."

It will be as good as a play to see Philip's face when he first sees you," I said. "I wouldn't miss it for anything. And, give you my word, that Dicky, Mary and I will scoot upstairs at the end of sixty seconds. I'll take Olina along also, if you give me the word. It would give you the chance to talk to Philip alone about Noel, if you wished."

"I think I should like that very much," Olga said, with her usual frankness. "Not only because of the opportunity to talk about Noel, but because I should like to be alone with Philip once he has seen the gown. You know he not only will be pleased, but he will need assurances that I do not regret the old times when gowns like these were part of my routine."

"I understand, dearest," I said tenderly and thought a bit cynically that I probably understood far more than she guessed. I was not in love with Philip Veritzen, never had been, but I had had years of close professional association with him, when I acted as historical mentor for his theatrical productions, and I knew the quirks of his melodramatic mind, and saw them clearly, not through a mist of nostalgic tenderness, as Olga did.

Then I lowered my voice. "The girls are coming back," I warned her and the next second Mary and Olina came through the doorway.

"Table all cleared and in readiness," Mary announced. 'Are you all ready for the sewing bee?'"

"As soon as we get our sewing kits," Olga said. "Olina, will you please get yours and mine, seeing that there are extra thimbles and needls for our guests.'"

"Don't strain yourself, Lina," Mary advised hastily, "in getting a needle and a thimble for me. I won't need them to pull out basting threads, and if you don't want your gown ruined, Mother, you'd better not give me any sewing to do."

"I think you do yourself an injustice, dearest," Olga told her, "but three needle women on one gown will have a hard time not getting in each other's way, so you will be excused."

"Personally, I think you have a lovely racket, Mary," Olina said with a grin. "You get out of a lot of work. I wish I could think up one like it."

"You will if you stay over here long enough," Mary quipped. "But don't begin practicing today. I'm keeping an eagle eye on you, my girl. Run along and get the implements."

Olina already was at the door, and in half a minute was back again with her sewing kit, and that of her mother. As I fitted Olga's gown, I explained the sewing to be done, and Olga, Olina and I fell to work feverishly, while Mary sat "at attention" close to us threading needles, pulling out basting threads, and saving time for each of us in every possible way.

"It's all done every stitch," I exclaimed three-quarters of an hour later.

"Then Maman," Olina exclaimed excitedly, "let me do your hair. I won't take ten minutes. Then we'll all help you get into your gown."

"And in the meantime I'll get at Faith's gown," I said then added, "or perhaps I won't, as the telephone rang. "That is Dicky calling, I am sure."

The sport of bowling originated as a religious ceremony in cathedral cloisters, where, if a parishioner bowled over his pin, he was considered to be leading a clean life.

Farewell Party Held For Caledonia Family

Mr. and Mrs. Orin G McGlone and daughter, Joy, were honored with a "farewell" party Sunday evening at the Caledonia Church of Christ. Mr. McGlone, superintendent of the Caledonia public schools the last three years has accepted a position as superintendent of the consolidated school system at Marlboro in Stark county. He is an elder in the church, and has been teacher of the Men's Bible class. Present with members of the congregation at the farewell event were teachers of the Caledonia schools. For a covered dish supper tables were decorated with paper horseshoes "for good luck." A program followed including singing of choruses at tabe. Alexander Lowe gave two humorous readings. Rev. Melvin Keeran pastor reviewed his acquaintances with the McGlones and gifts were presented the family in behalf of the Sunday school by Lester Mason. Mrs. McGlone and Joy gave readings, and the program closed with a showing of a moving picture film strip on the lives of two Bible characters.

REUNIONS

MILLER

The annual Miller family reunion was held Sunday, July 18 at the Prospect Park with 94 relatives present from Jefferson, Cleveland, Caledonia, Bexley, Waldo, Marion, Radnor, Prospect and Kirkwood. Oldest person present was John Miller of Prospect who is 81, and the youngest present was Charles Lee Wood. A program was presented with individual numbers by Harry Jane Cliff and Mary and Margaret Wood, several guitar selections by Jackie Dennis and a reading by Carol Ann Miller. Officers elected for the new year are Howard Miller, president; John R. Miller, secretary; and the entertainment committee chairman. The reunion next year will be held at the same place the last Sunday in July.

Your Good Health

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN

Treating Bronchial Asthma

Since permanent cures are rare in cases of bronchial asthma, the patient with this disorder must learn to live with it as best he can hoping that something of worth will be discovered in the meantime. The aim of the doctor will be to give every possible aid in the way of relieving and preventing attacks.

Asthma occurs in periodic attacks, during which the patient finds breathing extremely difficult. The wheezing and coughing which accompany the shortness of breath are very trying, both to the patient and those who must care for him.

Many cases of asthma are undoubtedly due to allergy, thus it would seem that complete cures could be obtained by the discovery of the substance to which the patient is sensitive. Yet, experience shows that even where this search is successful and the patient is taken out of contact with the offending substance, improvement is often no more than temporary.

Since this is true, it is fortunate that a number of measures are available for relieving the attacks. Where the seizure is mild, it may be treated successfully by having the patient breathe a fine vapor containing a mixture of adrenaline, papaverine and atropine. Of course the proper preparation must be prescribed by the physician. The vapor is breathed in over a period of several minutes and then for at least two minutes longer than the time when the patient gets relief. It is also recommended that the patient take ephedrine by mouth at the same time since the effect of the ephedrine will not develop for about an hour.

In a more severe attack, the ephedrine is of little value. In such cases, the adrenaline is given by injection under the skin. A sufficiently large dose must be used, and it is advised that it be divided up and given in different parts of the skin so that more rapid absorption will take place.

In some instances, aminophylline, given by injection into a vein, relieves the attack when the adrenaline is not successful.

The prevention of attacks is also important. Under the direction of his physician, the patient can learn to cut short an attack at the very beginning, thus avoiding a severe seizure. If he carries an inhaler with him, he is always prepared to breathe in an attack-routing drug mixture at the slightest sign of a wheeze. It may also be helpful to take ephedrine in advance if the patient knows about what time of the day an attack may be expected.

Breathing exercises to deflate the chest and bring the abdominal muscles into action are useful if properly employed. The exercises must be carried out slowly under the doctor's direction.

Questions and Answers

V. B.: What is glandular fever?

Answer: This disorder is also known as infectious mononucleosis.

Glandular fever is a condition in which there are enlarged lymph glands in the neck and an increase in the white blood cells in the blood, particularly the lymphocytes.

The condition is due to an infection. There are rarely any complications, and it disappears, as a rule, within ten days.

Treatment consists of complete rest in bed, the giving of a moderate diet and plenty of fluids, and such drugs as the physician may prescribe for the relief of the fever and other symptoms.

WHY IS THERE A STANDARD POWER TAKE-OFF AND HITCH?

As power-driven machines were designed, a wide variation of power take-off locations resulted—and also much confusion in the use of hitches and a neglect of safety shields. Now the Farm Equipment Institute, the A.S.A.E. and implement manufacturers have worked out standard dimensions for shaft, shield and drawbar hitch point, ensuring farmers a safer and properly operating hitch.

BROTHER OF FORMER MOBSTER IS SHERIFF

By The United Press

SALLISAW, Okla., July 28—E. W. Floyd, brother of one-time public enemy No. 1 Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd, won a bitterly fought election for county sheriff today.

Floyd, 40, a $30 a week grocery clerk, was making this first bid for political office.

"I kind of want to show the people that I can do a good job of law enforcement even though my brother was on the other side," he said.

Partial election returns showed Floyd was leading Henry Jones, the incumbent Sequoyah county sheriff by 1,100 votes.

Feeling has run high in Sallisaw ever since Pretty Boy's brother announced his candidacy. A whispering campaign was waged against him attacking him because of the notorious record of Pretty Boy who was killed by the FBI near East Liverpool, O., in 1934.

But some political observers believed the attacks gained E. W. votes in the hill country areas, where Pretty Boy is still a sort of Robin Hood hero.

E. W. also got sympathy and votes when voters learned that his wife is a patient in a tuberculosis sanitarium at Talihina, Okla. The sheriff's job paying $45 a week will make it easier for E. W. to support her and the family's four children.

Despite the bank-robbing exploits of Pretty Boy, the new sheriff has a clean record, himself. He ran on the campaign slogan, "He ain't perfect but he's honest."

FILE SUIT AGAINST SCHINE MOVIE CHAIN

By International News Service

COLUMBUS, July 28—A $245,800 suit for damages against the Schine circuit, largest independent movie chain in the country, was filed in U. S. district court in Columbus yesterday.

Plaintiffs Emerson W. Long and Edwin B. Long, of Cadiz, charged that the defendants "conspired to monopolize . . . the exhibition of motion pictures in Schine towns . . . and to suppress competition in violation of . . . the Sherman Anti-Trust act and the Clayton Anti-Trust act."

Named in the suit are five New York concerns, the Schine Theatrical Corporation, the Schine Chain Theatres Inc., Schine Circuit Inc., Schine Enterprises corporation and Schine Lexington corporation.

A sixth Ohio concern, Belpik Theater corporation of Cleveland, was also named.

The suit stated that the Schine chain operated 148 theaters in 73 towns in New York, Ohio, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and Kentucky. Of this, 10 Schine theaters and Kentucky 8.

The Long partners, former operators of the Memorial theater in Mt. Vernon, claimed that the defendants arbitrarily deprived them competition of first and second run features, obtained unreasonable clearances and film rental concessions not available to competitors.

They further charged that the defendants created a condition where open competition was completely stifled by the threat to exclude from their theaters the product of any distributor resisting their demands."

HER 22ND AND SHE'S ONLY 38. Twenty-two children for a 38-year-old woman is enough," says Mrs. Maude Ethel Pope as she and a nurse at Grady hospital, Atlanta, Ga., proudly exhibit No. 22, named Daniel Martin Pope after Dr. Daniel Martin, attending physician. She is eager to be up and about again, to finish the house she started building here. Available back "About 10" of her children are living.

CLEVELAND, July 28—Minimum salaries for teachers in suburban Parma schools were increased from $2,000 to $2,400 last night by the Parma board of education.

SCHOOL PROFESSORS ON STRIKE IN JAPAN

By The United Press

TOKYO, July 28—Nearly 2,500 professors at Japanese colleges and universities went on strike today despite a warning from a cabinet minister they were defying Gen. Douglas MacArthur's order forbidding government employes to strike.

The walkouts came a few hours after James S. Killen, chief of MacArthur's labor section, said he would resign because he disagreed with the occupation's new labor policy for Japan.

Gen. MacArthur last week strongly suggested to Premier Hitoshi Ashida that strikes by public employes be banned. The Japanese government decided Gen. MacArthur's letter to the Premier constituted an order.

The first to walk out were 2,000 faculty members and employes of the state-operated Kyushu university at Fukuoka. They planned to be away from their posts for 24 hours. Later 300 teachers at four Gumma prefecture colleges went on strike.

About 400 instructors at three Tochigi prefecture colleges reportedly planned to take similar action.

Education minister Tatsu Morito warned that Gen. MacArthur's no-strike warning applied to teachers as well as other government employes who comprise one-fourth of Japan's unionized labor forces.

Only Genuine Interlock Construction
Completely Seals Out Dust-Dirt-Drafts

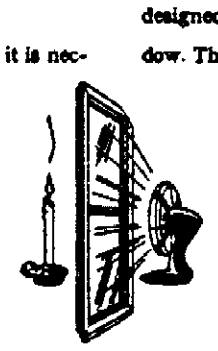

Revolutionary Window Engineering Principle Originated by Weather-Seal

The interlock is the most precise method ever devised for joining together two pieces of wood so that the air tight seal can be broken by a child (for easy changing of screen and window panels)... yet when the seal is established no dirt, dust or draft can get through it.

To achieve this engineering feat, it is necessary for our craftsmen to work California Coastal Redwood with the precision of fine cabinet work.

It has been necessary for us to design, and in many cases build, our own machinery! It is certainly a job only for craftsmen such as the men of Weather-Seal who tailor-make each window for you.

There are three of these Weather-Seal designed interlocks on every full sized window. The seal against dirt and the elements is air tight... and so is your assurance of full value as covered by the written, Weather-Seal guarantee.

Harold A. Etling
President

Weather Seal windows and doors are built of age-old California Coastal Redwood ... will not warp, rot or shrink ... stays beautiful with little care.

With Weather Seal you change winter panes to summer screens in a jiffy. A few turns of an exclusive screw fastening and windows and screens come out easily.

Let it rain ... let it pour! You'll always be sure of draft free, rainproof ventilation the year around. You'll know the real meaning of finger tip weather control.

All the rich, lustrous beauty of America's most magnificent wood is permanently yours with Weather Seal. They'll dress up your home ... add beauty and style.

Weather-Seal combination windows are custom-built to the dimensions of your particular home ... are tailor made to fit and stay fitted, for a lifetime.

Weather Seal weather comfort is guaranteed for life. Our written guarantee covering workmanship and material accompanies each job.

Vandalism Reports Checked by Police

Marion police today were investigating widespread vandalism, believed caused by juveniles, in the South Side of Marion late last night.

First report of the vandalism came at 3:30 a. m. today when a telephone call informed police that four youths were hanging around in the vicinity of Duluth and Windsor streets. When a cruiser arrived, the youths were gone, but police discovered an arm holding up a street light at Duluth and Superior had been broken off.

At 6:30 a. m. police discovered that a traffic-check cable laid across South Prospect street had been cut and later discovered a second mutilated cable.

More telephone calls sent the police to 403 South Prospect street where two brick posts had been broken down, the bricks scattered over the sidewalk to 334 Edgewood drive where a window had been broken, and to 230 Pearl street to investigate damage there.

STORM

a large tree over on the top route against the rear screen door of his house.

Electric power was still off today in the east and southeast of Ashley. Telephone communication was possible only part of the time in part of the town. The center of the village was a shambles of broken tree limbs, uprooted trees and one home was damaged. A maple tree toppled onto the roof of the home of Eugene Apt, loosening the chimney and breaking the plaster and eves. On West High street in Ashley a 60-foot elm tree was torn out by the roots and fell across the road breaking telephone and electric wires and striking a utility pole. North Grove street was completely blocked by fallen trees and the Ashley fairgrounds was littered by large tree limbs.

Marion insurance agents reported only a few claims for wind damage had been filed early today but more reports were expected before the day ends, the agents agreed.

Planes at all three county airports were grounded for over an hour before the rain started because of turbulent air conditions.

Winds High in Columbus

According to United Press reports the winds reached a speed of 42 miles an hour in Columbus and rain flooded streets in many sections. Little damage resulted. Port Columbus weather station reported 1.3 inches of rain fell in 45 minutes time.

Five persons narrowly missed death when a huge tree smashed the front of their car when it fell across highway 16 near Newark last night. William J. Boylan, 35, of Newark and four members of his family escaped uninjured, according to an Associated Press report.

Several buildings, planes, and airport hangars were destroyed at Barberton, northeast of Akron by a fire believed to have been started by a bolt of lightning during the storm.

Official rainfall as reported in Marion was 43 hundredths of an inch during the 24 hours ended at 8 a. m. today. During the same period a high temperature of 90 was reported while the low was 64 degrees.

Lightning Blamed For Ohio Airfield Fire

By The Associated Press

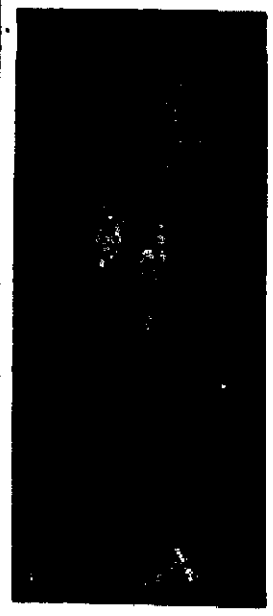

AKRON, O. July 28—Fire destroyed three buildings and seven training planes at the Ling air field near Barberton, causing damage estimated by co-owner L. H. Watkins at $70,000.

Firemen from Norton township, Clinton, Doylestown and Barberton battled the blaze for several hours as blasts from plane gasoline tanks shook the area.

Watkins said the blaze started in a hangar in which the seven planes were housed adding that he believed the fire was caused by a bolt of lightning during a thunderstorm.

About 35 planes parked on the private field were saved by the firemen. Some 30 persons, including GI students taking civil air patrol training, escaped without injury.

Joints made with animal glue have a tensile strength of more than 5,000 pounds per square inch—twice as strong as wood itself.

FACES BRIBE TERM. Convicted on all eight counts of bribery for protection of numbers racketeers, Ernest L. Molnar, discharged Cleveland police lieutenant, awaits sentencing—a minimum of one year, maximum of 80 in prison.

TWO-RIDER BIKES BARRED

By The United Press

CINCINNATI July 28 — The single seat motorcycle ridden by two was outlawed here today. Police Chief Eugene Weatherly announced. Weatherly said two persons may legally ride a motorcycle only if it has two separate seats with handles for each rider. The chief announced the two-on-one ban following the second death here this year as the result of two persons riding on a single seat motorcycle.

NO PRICE CONTROLS NAM HEAD STRESSES

By The United Press

NEW YORK, July 28—Morris Sayre, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, said today that a return to price controls could "create a black market which would make our last one seem lily-white by contrast."

Mr Sayre, speaking at the 31st annual convention of the International Association of Lions clubs here, said the answer to inflation was neither in higher wages or lower profits.

"Of all the people on earth, we Americans are the one people who ought to know by recent and bitter experience that price controls and rationing are no answer to high prices," he said.

Mr Sayer told the Lions that "production to satisfy demand is the only way to stop the spiral of prices.

"And increased productivity," he said, "—output per worker—is the only way to increase real wages, lower prices and provide the better tomorrow we all so ardently desire.

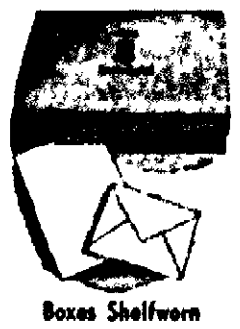

"The key to this log-jam is to eliminate unnecessary government spending and reduce our highly progressive income tax so that people can save and invest.

"The answer to inflation is certainly not in higher wages. Three rounds have demonstrated that.

Although the Chinese used gunpowder for fuses, Friar Roger Bacon, of England, discovered its explosive qualities hundreds of years later.

One Killed In Traffic Crash

Shelby Man Dead, Two Others Critically Injured in Crawford County.

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, July 28—One man was killed instantly and two others were critically injured in a truck-automobile collision at 2:40 p m yesterday at the intersection of route 30-N and county road No. 6 about seven miles east of Bucyrus.

Dead is Raymond Zelters, 52, of Shelby, and injured are Arnold Hiatt, 46, also of Shelby, and John Milton Pfleiderer, 49 of near Bucyrus. Zelters' death was attributed to a broken neck. Both the injured are in Bucyrus City hospital. Hiatt, driver of the truck, whose condition is reported to be "fair," suffered a serious injury to his left arm which later necessitated amputation above the elbow. Pfleiderer, driver of the car, is reported to be suffering from a fractured skull and other possible injuries. His condition is listed at the hospital today as "critical."

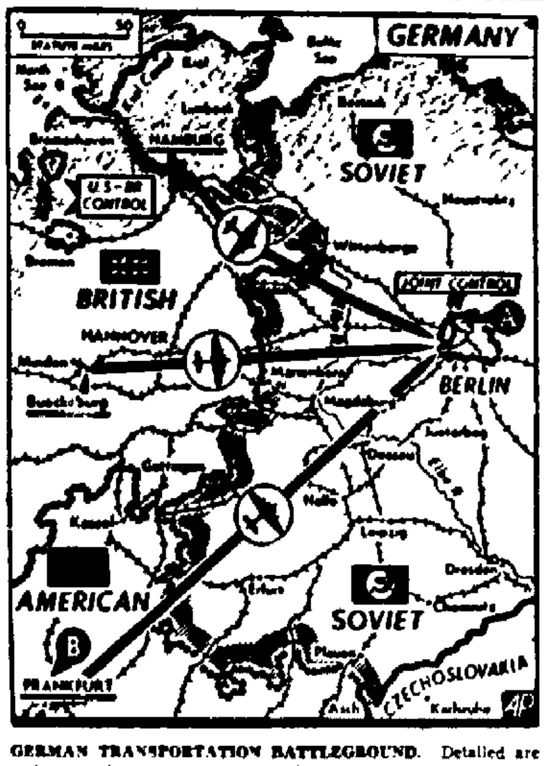

Hiatt was driving south on the county road and Pfleiderer west on the state route when the accident occurred. Sheriff Ralph Schreck said that the driver of the truck failed to stop at the intersection.

Zelters was riding with Hiatt in the truck of the Bing Co. furniture store of Shelby. Both men were employes of the furniture company as furniture movers and delivery men.

Zelter's body was removed to the Barkdull funeral home in Shelby.

BALDAUF STILL UNCONSCIOUS

Owen L. Baldauf of 226 Summit street remains in an unconscious condition today in White Cross hospital in Columbus. He suffered a fractured skull Saturday night when he fell down a flight of basement stairs at the home of Dr. Walter D. McCleskey near Marion. Mr Baldauf is associated with the Baldauf Construction Co.

GERMAN TRANSPORTATION BATTLEGROUND. Detailed are major rail lines crossing border (shaded) between Soviet and United States-British zones in Germany where traffic has been halted by Anglo-American order. Also mapped are Allied airlift routes into Berlin to break Soviet land blockade. In Berlin (A), U S started construction of new airport while at Frankfurt (B) final plans for Western-sponsored German government were announced.

SAYS CZECH ARMY IS ANTI-COMMUNIST. Gen. Antonin Hasal, one of the highest ranking officers of the Czechoslovakian army, gestures as he tells reporters at Heidelberg, Germany, he estimates that 70 per cent of the Czechoslovak officers and soldiers are against communism. He also said he did not believe the Russians want war. General Hasal recently fled from his homeland with his wife, son and daughter.

CHADRON, Neb—You do not have to be a jack-of-all-trades to be a Chamber of Commerce secretary ... but it helps.

Chester A. A...er secretary of the Chadron chamber submitted a report of his day-to-day activities. They included:

Putting up flags and banners to welcome various groups to the city.

Selling tickets to local events, including the Hereford Breeders banquet and the Chadron rodeo.

Welcoming youthful campers to the state park.

Making a house-to-house canvass to arrange rooms for college students.

Delivering toys at Christmas to 52 needy children.

Serving as a waiter at a 4-H club banquet.

Arranging booster trips to promote rural-urban relations.

HAZELHURST, Ga — Everybody admits that there are complications ... McNeal ...

McNeal's problem is in remembering names. He sat down on his 90th birthday and ... higher mathematics. His calculations showed 289 living descendants and goodness knows how many six feet under.

As well as McNeal can ascertain there must be 13 children, 96 grandchildren, 176 great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

New York Stock Quotations

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 28—Rails moved in front of a generally improved stock market today.

Favored issues advanced fractions to two points. A scattering of small losses also appeared.

Wright Aeronautical again headed the advance with a gain of around 4 points at one time. This followed yesterday's increase of about 14 points which resulted from news that directors had voted two dividends of $5 each.

Higher by smaller amounts were Goodyear Tire, Boeing, United Aircraft, American Smelting, Dow Chemical, Du Pont, Allied Chemical, Santa Fe (minus a dividend), N. Y. Central, Southern Railway, Atlantic Coast Line, Sinclair Oil, Pacific Western Oil, Mission Corp., and United Air-lines.

Bally spots included Firestone Tire, International Harvester, Commonwealth Edison, Westinghouse Electric, American Safety Razor and Union Carbide.

legislation, among several other things.

Southerners who bolted the Democratic national convention in opposition to the civil rights platform said they are all set to filibuster although only one of them used that term.

Senator Hoey (D-NC) told a reporter "we are ready to speak any civil rights bill to death." Then he added:

"The southerners are lining up to filibuster."

The parliamentary cards appeared to be all in Dixie hands. Actually the anti-poll tax bill is not yet before the senate. And a new legislative day is at hand.

Ohio-Indiana League All-Stars Pound Out 11-6 Win Over Reds

By The Associated Press

MUNCIE, Ind., July 28—The All-Stars of the Ohio-Indiana league pounded out a 11-6 victory here last night over league-leading Muncie

Manager Ray Hathaway of Zanesville got credit for the win, pitching hitless ball for three innings, and Larry Miller was marked up for the loss

Bob Davis of Portsmouth and Nick Alvojvodic of Marion also saw service on the mound for the All Stars, Davis giving up four hits in two and 2-3 innings and Alvojvodic giving up three hits in three and 1-3 innings

Ray Trava and Jay Kaufman gave Miller assistance on the mound for Muncie when things got hot Trava giving up two hits in two innings and Kaufman four in two innings

Muncie committed seven errors in the game and the All-Stars three the latter clubbing Muncie pitchers for a total of 13 hits and the Reds getting only seven hits off the three All-Star pitchers

It rained before the game started and this held the crowd to fewer paid admissions than had been anticipated The gate receipts showed 1 670 customers

There were no home runs scored and it was Ray Berns of Springfield who took the hitting honors of the game Berns a shortstop got three hits for six times at bat and batted in two runs

The All Stars pulled two double plays, Hathaway, Eshoo and Pulcini and Eshoo, Major and Hosler

Before the game League President Frank Colley announced that a decision had been reached to bar team managers from playing roles in future All-Star games

No games were scheduled tonight with play resuming Thursday night Muncie still leads the league, with Zanesville in second place, Portsmouth in third and Springfield in fourth.

FELLER GETS WIN AS INDIANS SLUG A'S

Ed Kleman Saves Game; Put Cleveland Second.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 28 — Bob Feller had his 10th victory tucked away today after a bit of managerial hocus pocus by Cleveland Indians pilot Lou Boudreau but scheduled starter Ed Klieman was forced to save the win for the former fireballer

Boudreau had announced Klieman as the starting hurler for last night's series opener with the Philadelphia Athletics and when the smoke from the Indians booming bats cleared away from the stadium Klieman was on the mound and the Tribe was in second place with a 10-5 victory

Sam Chapman Philadelphia center fielder lowered the boom on Bob with a tremendous grand slam homer into the left field stands in the fifth after Feller had walked three men It was the 19th round tripper delivered by Feller this season and tied the score 5-5

Ken Keltner launched the Tribe's winning rally with a single in the sixth and moved to second on another one bagger by Jim Hegan Feller was lifted for pinch-hitter Hal Peck who beat out an infield safety and four runs crossed the plate on additional singles by Larry Doby and Dale Mitchell plus an infield out

Klieman then saved Feller's first victory in three weeks with three innings of brilliant shutout hurling

Keltner blasted his 23rd home run in the seventh to tie Joe DiMaggio for the league lead while Joe Gordon rapped his 19th in the third Allie Clark paced the Indians offensive with two triples and a single

A GOOD baseball question Marionites can pose in lieu of the unpleasant how far down will the Cubs go might be how far up will Richmond's Braves get before the season ends? The Braves have played better than 2 to 1 ball since the first of the month From deep in the league's cellar 18 games back of the front runners they have moved up to fifth place in the league 12 games behind the Muncie Reds whom they beat in two of three weekend games just as they've averaged two wins or better in every three games played this month

Early in June the Braves underwent an extensive lineup shakeup but remained as impotent as before while Newark walloped them in three weekend games During the rest of the month Richmond had three teams one coming one playing and one going but by the end of the month they emerged with a winning combination Since July 1 they've won 40 games and lost but nine

THE BRAVES have 48 games to play and if they continue to win two out of three they'll end up with 73 wins and 66 losses which would put them solidly in the first division their position in the top four depending on how tight the race ends probably third behind Zanesville and Muncie

Unquestionably Richmond is the best ball club in the league today with Zanesville a close second Muncie the leader has only held its own during the month Portsmouth has shown a favorable gain Newark a slight gain Springfield once on even terms with Muncie has slipped the most, with Lima and Marion trailing in that order

While the other clubs in the league may be strengthened the weaker clubs the most it is hoped—it is doubtful if any of them will come up with enough help to match the Braves on even terms

Al Rosen Hits 2 Homers as KC Wins

By The Associated Press

Al Rosen, stocky 23 year-old Kansas City infielder is one of the hottest home run hitting streaks of the American Association season

Rosen who won the Texas league batting crown last year with 349 slammed three homers in consecutive innings Monday and smashed two more last night in boosting Kansas City to an 8-4 triumph over St Paul

In the only other game last night Milwaukee continued its bid for the first division by blasting Milwaukee 10-6 The defeat pushed the Brewers farther into second place four games behind Indianapolis

Rain washed out Louisville at Toledo and Indianapolis at Columbus

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press

Batting—Hank Arft Browns—Hammered a home run and triple and drove in three runs in his major league debut to lead the Browns to a 4 0 victory over the New York Yankees

Pitching—Ellis Kinder Red Sox—Pitched a three-hit 8-0 shutout over the Tigers for Boston's 13th straight triumph

Veteran Righthander, Fired by A's Mack, Pitches 5-1 Win Over Bucs

By The Associated Press

Billy Southworth Boston Braves manager continues to have amazing success with castoffs

Southworth's latest find is Nelson Potter the veteran right hander he picked up a month ago as a free agent after the latter was fired by Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics

Potter thus joins those who have made fine comebacks under the expert guidance of Southworth

Potter who won his first start against Pittsburgh got his second last night and again came through with a well pitched game This time the American league discard permitted the Pirates only six hits in defeating them 5-1 in Boston He did not allow a run after Ralph Kiner tagged him for his 28th home run in the first inning He did not issue a single base on balls and struck out four including Kiner in the ninth inning

The victory in the opener of a 20-game home stand enabled the Braves to widen their first place margin over the rest of the field to five and a half games

Run Streak to 13

Boston's other major league entry Joe McCarthy's rampaging Red Sox extended their winning streak to 13 straight games by blanking the Tigers in Detroit 8 0 Ellis Kinder turned in his best performance of the season in chase from the St Louis Browns holding the Tigers to three hits Hal Newhouser Detroit's ace southpaw was the victim

Boston's triumph together with the Indians 10 5 victory over the Athletics in Cleveland gave the Red Sox a 1½ game lead in the tight American league pennant race Although the Indians trail by a game and a half to Philadelphia one they took over second place from the A's through a mathematical oddity The A's with four more victories and three more defeats than Cleveland are two percentage points behind the Tribe

The Brooklyn Dodgers replaced the St Louis Cardinals in the runner-up spot in the National league by coming from behind with two runs in the ninth to nip the Redbirds 3-2 in Brooklyn in the only game played in daylight

Larry Jansen turned in his second straight shutout and 13th victory of the season as he pitched the New York Giants to a 3 0 triumph over the Cincinnati Reds

The victory moved the Giants into the first division a half game ahead of the Pirates and one game behind the Cardinals

Chase Newhouser

A crowd of 54 609 Detroit fans saw the Red Sox snap Newhouser's five game winning streak by knocking him out with five runs in three innings Johnny Pesky and Bobby Doerr did the heavy stickwork Kinder had a no-hitter until Johnny Lipon doubled with one out in the sixth The turnout upped Detroit's home attendance over the million mark to 1 000 168

Rookie Hank Arft making his major league debut with the St Louis Browns drove in three runs with a triple and home run to lead the Browns to a 4 0 triumph over the New York Yankees Cliff Fannin held the Yankees to three hits in gaining his seventh victory Arft had arrived yesterday from Toledo to take over the regular first base duties

Pat Seerey walloped his 14th home run with Luke Appling on base and two out in the last of the ninth to give the Chicago White Sox a 2 1 triumph over the Washington Senators

Bob Scheffing's pinch single scored Clarence Maddern with the run in the 11th inning that gave the Chicago Cubs a 3 2 victory over Dutch Leonard and the Phils in Philadelphia The hit spoiled Eddie Sawyer's debut as Phils manager

ATHLETES AWAIT OLYMPIC OPENING

By The Associated Press

LONDON July 28—Unbothered by political undercurrents thousands of athletes wound up meticulous training today and tidied up for tomorrow's official opening of the Olympic games

The first day's program will be devoted to ceremony presided over by King George The competitors get down to business Friday

But political complications arose to cast a shadow however small over the greatest of sports spectacles

Romania disclosed it would not compete and the Bulgarian representatives have failed to arrive

Romania's sports leaders decided to forego the games because they said the Olympic organizing committee failed to accede to Russian and east European requests for seats on the committee

An Italian Communist newspaper man Tomasso Giglio was barred from entry into England This created a mild furore

But most of the athletes failed to be disturbed by politics and instead spent their worries on the marks showing up in rehearsals

Mal Whitfield the United States middle distance star from Ohio State reported he is over his sore throat and figures he'll have no trouble getting under 1 50 for the metric half mile when the chips are down He'll compete in both the 400 and 800 meters

Frank Stranahan Favored To Add Ohio Open to Golf Crowns

By The Associated Press

TOLEDO O July 28—There's a pretty good chance that the winner of the Ohio open golf championship which winds up today at Sylvania Country club won't get the $1 000 first prize

A field of 64 survivors of the 163 starters was booked for a twice-around performance today—the final 36 holes of the 72-hole medal play test.

And right out front as 41 professionals and 23 amateurs launched the final whirl were two amateurs—neither eligible for the $1 000 winner's share of the $2 800 pay off

Leading the pack and favored to stay there was 25-year-old Frankie Stranahan of Toledo, British and Canadian amateur champion who opened Monday with a two-under-par 70 to tie for the lead and then toured in yesterday with a 69 to get off by himself with 139

Two strokes back after adding a 69 to his opening 72 was 34-year-old Johnny [illegible] of Cleveland a [illegible] amateur The 69 [illegible] the pay-off [illegible] the best efforts of the [illegible] rounds.

Denny Shute Akron's two-time PGA champion former British open and Ohio amateur king and a three time winner of this event, was the [illegible] man in the professional field with 142 strokes Shute had a 70 yesterday and he has the halfway mark three strokes off the pace and two under par [illegible] an amateur win the title the $1 000 goes to the leading professional

The field was [illegible] after yesterday's round [illegible] scores of 156 or better for the two days being necessary to get into the stretch drive

Al Marchi of Troy defending champion qualified easily with 148 but appeared out of the title chase as he sagged down nine strokes back of Stranahan

At even par 144 were Billy Burke of Cleveland 1931 national open winner and three time victor in the state meet and Phil Perkins 1927 British amateur victor and 1937 state open champ Tied at 145 were Clyde Mumma, the long hitter from Dayton and Andy Mocsary of Salem Jack Stoddard of Bucyrus fired a 71-77—149

LARRY JANSEN SHUTS OUT REDLEGS, 3-0

Runs String of Scoreless Innings to 23.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK July 28—Larry Jansen, the New York right hander ran his string of scoreless innings to 23 last night as he shut out the Cincinnati Reds, 3-0 He gave only six hits.

Johnny Vander Meer who has won seven of 18 starts held the Giants to seven hits in seven innings but the New Yorkers touched him for a run in the first and again in the sixth. Howie Fox who came in for relief gave up the final score as the Giants combined a walk a Red error and a single for the tally

Only big Ted Kluszewski, the former Indiana university football star managed to get two hits off Jansen The big first baseman singled in the fourth and seventh innings

Stallcup doubled in the second inning for the Reds only extra base blow

Two Giant hits and a long fly led to the Giants first score Vander Meer gave only one hit in the third and one in the fourth before the Giants coupled a double and a single in the sixth for another run

Football Season To Get Under Way Here Less Than Month from Today

Just one day less than a month from today the school boy grid campaign for 1948 will get underway

That's the date fall football practices can legally begin and about 100 young athletes in Marion will be out for positions on the town's two high school elevens

Aspirants to Harding High school's football Presidents will be issued training uniforms August 19 head coach Pete Howison said today but practices won't begin until the next day

St Mary's Irish will meet a new head coach when they report to the St Mary field on East Farming street August 20 but not a stranger Coach Forest Sharrock who was appointed to the top spot when Gene Fetter resigned to become Ohio Northern university's freshman coach was an assistant to Fetter last year

Nine Prexies Back

The Presidents will have nine lettermen back including quarterback Dick Leffler fleet fullback Clarence Smith ends Jack Bishop and Tom Taylor tackles Clarence Upton and John Isaly guards Paul Menzer and John Bushatz and center Merle Daum

Seven veterans will return to the Irish lineup which lost 10 regulars by graduation A potential backfield of monogram winners includes quarterback Nick Maniaci halfbacks Bob "Corky" Cusick Paul C[illegible] and Bill Merchant but less than half a line will be back Ed Maloney end, Jim MacDonald, tackle, and Kevin Krigbaum, guard.

The Irish will find a new offensive formation besides a new coach, Sharrock prefering the single wing back to Fetter's T but the Presidents will presumably use the same basic plays as of last year the coaching staff remaining intact. Howard Thomas will again assist Howison by coaching the linemen, George Keel will work with the backs, and Kenny Somerlot will assist both

Two a Day

Training sessions for the Prexies will be run on a two-a-day basis until school begins, and then single after-school sessions will be held Howison expects 75 or 80 to try out for the Harding team

About 30 are expected to turn out for the smaller parochial school's team

Harding moving into faster company this season will open their season here Sept. 17 when they'll meet last year's gridiron champions of Columbus—West High school's Cowboys Later on they'll tackle two other newcomers to the schedule—Mansfield and Akron Hower

The Irish open again at Delaware with the Willis High school Panthers on Sept. 27

RUN-IN WITH UMP COST McCARTHY, PESKY $50

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, July 28—Manager Joe McCarthy and third baseman Johnny Pesky of the league-leading Boston Red Sox each were out $50 today after being fined for arguments with rookie Umpire John Stevens last Saturday in Boston.

McCarthy and Pesky received word of their fines shortly before the Sockers took the field and won their 13th straight game—8-0 over the Tigers—last night.

Pesky protested a called strike in the first inning of the opener of a doubleheader against the Cleveland Indians and was banished from the game as he ran to his position in the next inning. McCarthy then protested Pesky's ousting and he, too, was ordered from the field for the day.

Bellefontaine Studies Municipal Airport Offer

By International News Service

BELLEFONTAINE, July 28 — Bellefontaine may yet get a municipal airport.

A special city council committee is studying an offer by the owners of the Hareport field to sell the landing area to the city for $40,000.

A bond issue, similar to the one defeated by 62 votes in 1944 before the airport was developed privately, may be submitted to the voters in November, the council indicated.

MARCH OF DIMES TOTAL

"It's Tag Team Grappling Thursday"

Promotor Fishbaugh is bringing in to the Armory Thursday night the championship team of Danny Savage and Rod Fenton. These two won the championship several weeks ago in Toledo after defeating all taz teams brought against them. Thursday night they will meet the Team of Irish McGee and Jack Terry. These two have proved too rough in their Marion bouts and have been disqualified each time. The team match will be for the best two out of three falls with a two-hour time limit. There will be two thirty minute matches before the main attraction. Danny Savage will meet Jack Terry and Irish McGee will tangle with Rod Fenton.

It will be tag team wrestling night for the kids, too, one in the prelim. One fall or 15 minutes. James Stewart and Bob Decker take on Marion Shaw and Dick Doure at 8:30. Prices remain the same, 50c-$1.00. Call Markert and Lewis for your best reservations.—Adv.

Piles Are Never "Mild"

DANGER IN NEGLECT

No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder.

Although they may seem a "mild" ailment especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formation without tendency to heal themselves, instead they are likely, if neglected to keep increasing in size, irritate more and more of the rectal area.

Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by inviting predisposing to or aggravating other ailments, such as indigestion, biliousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, pain in back and down the legs, secondary anemia with its run-down tired feeling, and general nervous irritability.

Removal of piles is the only permanent relief written guarantee. My method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs, and seldom is the patient required to lose any time from work or other duties.

Why not call and learn of this method? The examination is free.

Write for reference and booklet "What Your Neighbors Say." Satisfied patients in over 240 cities, towns and villages.

GOVERNOR TO CHECK AIR NEEDS OF CITIES

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O July 28—Gov Thomas J Herbert yesterday appointed a committee to check the air needs of 26 Ohio cities The appointments followed a conference called by the governor to discuss feeder airline service

Fred Milligan, state commerce director told the conference cities should pool their efforts so that contracts outside Ohio will know that the full forces of Ohio are back of the move for developing air carrier service."

He said factories are constantly being located in smaller communities and particularly in county seat towns, many of which would be greatly benefited by air carrier service connecting them with the larger industrial centers'

The committee includes Milligan, John Advent executive secretary of the Ohio Publicity and Development commission C E A Brown, state director of aviation and Aubrey Wendt of the attorney general's office

Cities represented were Akron, Bellefontaine Barberton Chillicothe Cleveland Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton Defiance East Liverpool Findlay Lima Mansfield Marietta Newark New Philadelphia Perrysburg Portsmouth Springfield Tiffin Toledo Urbana Van Wert Warren Youngstown and Zanesville

INSPECTORS PROBE INDIANA MINE BLAST

By The Associated Press

PRINCETON Ind July 28—Grim inspectors probed the depths of Kings coal mine today seeking to learn the cause of an explosion which killed 13 miners yesterday afternoon

It was the second serious explosion in eight months at Kings The previous blast last November caused no deaths but was followed by extensive fires which closed the mine for more than two months

The mine had been closed again last week because of water seepage It had been inspected Sunday by state mine inspectors and had been reopened only yesterday

Two men were injured critically in yesterday's blast and a rescue worker also was in a hospital after being overcome by gas. Condition of the rescue worker George (Red) Cornelius was not serious. Two other miners were given first aid for slight injuries

The dead and injured were members of a single cadre which was in the lowest level of Indiana's deepest shaft mine 433 feet underground and three miles east of the tipple.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Court of Common Pleas, Marion County, Ohio. Case No. 29818.

Mable Zeller, Plaintiff, vs. Edward Zeller, et al., Defendants.

In pursuance of an Order of Sale issued from said Court to me directed in the above entitled action, I will expose to sale, at public auction, at the East door of the Court House in Marion County, Ohio, on Saturday the 28th day of August, 1948 at 10:00 o'clock A. M., the following described real estate, situate in the County of Marion and State of Ohio, and in the City of Marion to-wit:

Bounded and described as follows: Being part of Lot Number Twenty-five Hundred and twenty-three (2523) in Carr's Addition to the City of Marion, Ohio, and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point ten (10) feet West of the Southeast corner of said Lot 2523 in Carr's Addition to the City of Marion, Ohio, it also being the Southwest corner of the premises deeded by B. F. Waples and J. W. Jacoby to Earl VanMeter by deed dated August 20th, 1906 and recorded in Volume 109 at page 298 of the deed records of Marion County, Ohio, thence North on a line parallel with the East line of said Lot No. 2523, One Hundred eighty-one and seventy-five hundredths (181.75) feet to the North line thereof, thence West on the North line thereof, forty (40) feet, thence South on a line parallel with the West line of said Lot, one hundred eighty-one and seventy-five hundredths (181.75) feet to the South line thereof, thence East on the South line thereof, forty (40) feet to the place of beginning. Excepting therefrom ten (10) feet off of the South end thereof heretofore deeded to the City of Marion for street purposes. Said premises being improved with a 6-room semi-modern frame dwelling and garage, and being located at 194 East Fairground Street, Marion, Ohio.

Said Premises Appraised at $3200 Thirty Two Hundred 00/100 and cannot sell for less than two-thirds of the appraisal.

Terms of Sale: 10% on day of sale, balance when sale is confirmed.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Court of Common Pleas, Marion County, Ohio. Case No. 29765.

Zoe M. Fies, Plaintiff, vs. James A. Fies, Defendant.

In pursuance of an Order of Sale issued from said Court to me directed in the above entitled action, I will expose to sale at public auction, at the door of the Court House in Marion County, Ohio, on Saturday the 31st day of July, 1948 at 10:00 o'clock A. M., the following described real estate, situate in the County of Marion and State of Ohio, and in the City of Marion to wit:

Known as and being the South half (½) of the following: The North part of Inlot Seventy Eight (78) in the now city of Marion, Ohio, commencing at the Northeast corner of said lot; thence West on the North line of said lot one hundred sixty-five (165) feet to the alley; thence South on the East line of said alley and West line of said lot, fifty (50) feet to what was formerly John Gugle's line; thence East parallel with the North line of said lot Number Seventy Eight (78) and on the North line of what was formerly said John Gugle's property, one hundred sixty-five (165) feet to a point in the West line of Main street and the East line of said lot Number seventy-eight (78), which point is fifty (50) feet Southwardly from the Northeast corner of said lot; and thence North on the East line of said lot and the West line of said Main Street fifty (50) feet to the place of beginning.

Together with and subject to all party walls, party wall and stairway rights and appurtenances and hereditaments thereunto in anywise appertaining or belonging.

Reserving, however, to the defendant, The Isaly Dairy Company, and to the defendant W. Neil Price, their respective rights under the leases severally held by them, as heretofore found and adjudged, and subject to each and both said leases.

A brick block entirely covers said premises, being two stories fronting on South Main Street, and the rear being one story high. Said premises being located at 151-151½ South Main Street, in Marion, Ohio.

Said Premises Appraised at Thirty Six Thousand 00/000 ($36,000.00) and cannot sell for less than two-thirds of appraised value.

Terms of Sale: 10% on day of sale, balance when sale is confirmed.

LEROY RETTERER, Sheriff, Marion County, Ohio.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

By AP Newsfeatures

JOE E. (EVAN) BROWN, born July 28, 1892, at Holgate, O., son of a house-painter. At 9, Joe was a circus acrobat. At 14, he was in vaudeville. He made the St Paul baseball team at 17. After his marriage in 1915, Joe turned comedian and reached musical comedies via burlesque. His wide grin won him film fame and cheered GIs through World War II, in which one of his sons was killed

Police Hold Mother For Abandoning Baby

By International News Service

CLEVELAND, July 28—Cleveland police held a young mother today who first abandoned her five-week-old baby girl and later decided she wanted her back

The woman wheeled the baby into St Luke's hospital and made a weeping exit after placing the child in a crib in a room off one of the corridors

A short while later she returned to claim her child and declare she had made a mistake in leaving her

Facts in the case were to be turned over to the police prosecutor.
